Today's Starting Five:

- Missouri S&T looks for its first 3-0 start to a season since the 2010-11 season tonight as it hosts Calvary University at Billy Key Court. The Miners have opened the campaign with wins over Principia and Lincoln and will look to not only go 3-0 for the first time in six seasons, but for just the fourth time since the 1999-2000 season. S&T faced Calvary in the only prior meeting between them in one of those aforementioned year that it opened with three straight wins.
- Since the NCAA instituted the three-point line prior to the 1986-87 season, the Miners had never opened a season having made at least 10 treys in each of its first two games of the year -- until now. S&T made 11 three-pointers in Tuesday's win over Principia, then knocked down 14 from beyond the arc the following night against Lincoln.
- Over the last three seasons, the Miners have averaged 83.7 points per game, the highest three-year scoring average in program history. S&T scored 81.5 points per game last year, which ranked sixth in the GLVC and marked the first time ever that the Miners had averaged at least 80 points a game in three consecutive seasons.
- Missouri S&T also ranked among the GLVC leaders a year ago in turnover margin (+3.07 fewer turnovers than its opponents) and in steals (8.4 per game), while leading the league in offensive rebounds with nearly 14 per game. Rokas Paulauskas led the GLVC on an individual basis in offensive rebounds, pulling down an average of 3.2 per contest.
- For the last three years, the Miners have finished the season with a player that has accumulated 100 assists (last year, it was Juwan Miller with 103) after not having a player reach that mark for a decade. After recording seven assists Wednesday, Miller has 166 career assists, which is 53 in back of Stan Shuemaker and DeAndre Johnson for 10th all-time at S&T, while his 84 steals are 30 behind Zach Ellis for 10th. Meanwhile, Danylo Zuikov is currently in 10th place with 131 career three-point baskets; Kevin Robertson sits in ninth place with 139.

About the Opponent

Calvary:

Calvary dropped an 80-69 decision last night to Central Christian to drop to 1-2 on the year. The Warriors picked up an 87-74 win over Union (Neb.) last week after Dordt handed them a loss in an exhibition game, but Calvary lost earlier this week to Kansas Christian prior to last night's setback.

In the game against Dordt, Calvary had two players in double figures as Blake Lamb scored 15 points to lead the way and Hajj Green finished with 12. Lamb had a perfect night from the floor in that game, hitting all five of his shots that came from beyond the three-point line.

Kalif Spraggins had seven assists in that contest and also led the Warriors with five assists.

Series vs. Calvary:

Missouri S&T has won the only previous matchup against Calvary, routing the Warriors 127-42 back in the 2003-04 season. It was the largest margin of victory for the Miners in school history of 85 points.

In that game played on Dec. 4, 2003, Missouri S&T connected on a school record 20 three-point baskets. The Miners have averaged 12.5 treys over the first two games of the current season.

It's early, but...:

Granted, Missouri S&T has just two games under its belt this season -- Tuesday's 104-65 win over Principia and Wednesday's 91-88 win over Lincoln -- but after those games, the Miners find themselves around the top of NCAA Division II in a few statistical categories heading into today's contest.

The Miners are ranked sixth nationally in scoring at 97.5 points per game and are fifth with 12.5 three-point baskets per game. The Miners also own a top-10 ranking in a couple of key categories -- assist-to-turnover ratio, where they are seventh and in turnovers per game at ninth.

Hitting the offensive glass:

The Miners finished last season as the top-ranked offensive rebounding team in the GLVC, pulling down just under 14 per game. That mark ranked 14th in NCAA Division II in that category.

S&T pulled down 16 offensive boards in Tuesday's win over Principia and had 12 more on Wednesday, including a dozen by last year's GLVC leader, Rokas Paulauskas. The senior post player had a league-high 82 rebounds on the offensive end of the floor last season.

Miners at charity stripe:

Missouri S&T finished last season as one of the top free throw shooting teams in the GLVC, ending up sixth with a mark of 75.1 percent. The Miners had eight regulars all connect on at least 70 percent of their attempts and had four at better than 80 percent.

On Wednesday, S&T went 19-of-23 at the free throw line and made all seven of its attempts in the final five minutes of play, including six in the last 28 seconds.

Since the start of the 2013-14 season, Miner teams have made 72.8 percent (1,865 of 2,561) of their tries at the free throw line.

Three-Point shooting:

The Miners have made at least one three-point basket in 794 of the 797 games they have played since the three-point shot went into effect at the start of the 1986-87 season. At one point in the stretch, S&T had made at least one three-pointer in 597 consecutive games.

Missouri S&T hit 212 three-pointers last season, the 10th time in the 30 years in which the three-point shot has been part of college basketball in which the Miners have made at least 200 in a season. S&T hit at least 10 three-pointers in a game on eight occasions and made 14 in Wednesday's win over Lincoln.
