Today's Starting Five:

- Missouri S&T opens up a two-game Great Lakes Valley Conference homestand Thursday night as it welcomes Illinois Springfield to Billy Key Court for a 7:30 p.m. matchup. The Miners come into the game at 9-11 overall and 3-10 in the GLVC after Saturday's 80-59 loss to then eighth-ranked Bellarmine, while UIS -- led by former Miner Bill Walker -- is 7-15 and 2-11 in the GLVC. The Prairie Stars have dropped six straight, the latest a 71-61 loss Saturday to Maryville.
- With his two assists on Saturday at Bellarmine, Juwan Miller is sixth on S&T's all-time list. Miller has accumulated 252 assists as a Miner and on Jan. 19, became the first Miner to reach double figures in assists since Feb. 5, 2015, when Danylo Zuikov had 13 to set the S&T single game record. In that same game with Rockhurst when he had 11 assists, Miller became the first Miner since Kerry Darting on Nov. 15, 2003 to record a double-double in points and assists in a game.
- Not only has Juwan Miller reached a top 10 list at S&T, so has Danylo Zuikov with his three-point shooting. Zuikov enters Thursday's game with 151 career treys, which rank eighth on the Miners' all-time list.
- S&T, which has hit 10 or more three-point baskets in 13 of its 20 games this season, has now made 200 or more three-pointers in three of the last four seasons as it has 201 coming into Thursday's game. If the Miners stay at their current pace (10.1 per game), they will finish the year with their second-most in a year in school history.

The Miners' 12-of-12 performance at the free throw line in the Dec. 7 win over Robert Morris-Peoria marked the first time that an S&T team had not missed a free throw in a game since Feb.

- 10, 2011, when the Miners went 10-of-10 in a win at Maryville. It was the most made in a game with a miss since Feb. 11, 2004, when the Miners were 16-of-16 at the line in a win at Central Missouri; the Dec. 7 contest marked just the third time since then in which an S&T team made all of its free throw attempts in a game.

Projecting it out...:

With Missouri S&T's season into the final month -- five regular season games remain on the schedule -- a number of Miners are on pace to reach some particular marks for a single year at S&T.

With 99 assists on the year, Juwan Miller is on pace to finish with 123 assists, which would be the sixth-best mark in a season all-time. He is also poised to record 100 assists on the year -- needing only one to get there -- which would make him just the second Miner in the history to have 100 or more in back-to-back seasons. The other was DeAndre Johnson, who had 111 assists in 2002-03 and 108 the following year.

Meanwhile, at his current rate, Jalen Myers will finish the year with 67 three-point baskets, which would be just shy of the top 10 for a single year. However, even if he doesn't reach the 10th place spot of (72), Myers is on pace to record the most three-pointers in a season by a Miner since Jermaine Burks made 75 in the 2004-05 campaign.

No Miner has finished a season shooting 60 percent or better from the field (with three field goals made per game) since Brian Westre in 2003-04, but Dulan Scott has a chance to reach that mark as he is at 60.4 percent on the year. In addition, the Miners have had at least one player shoot 40 or better from three-point range in each of the last three years (with one made per game) and currently have two players (Ervin Sarajic and Myers) over that 40 percent threshold; both have made enough treys for the year to qualify.

Hitting the offensive glass:

The Miners finished last season as the top-ranked offensive rebounding team in the GLVC, pulling down just under 14 per game. That mark ranked 14th in NCAA Division II.

S&T has an average of 13.1 offensive rebounds in the first 20 games of this season, which leads the GLVC heading into Saturday's contest. Rokas Paulauskas, who has 56 boards on the offensive end, is second in the GLVC with just under three per game.

Miners at charity stripe:

Missouri S&T finished last season as one of the top free throw shooting teams in the GLVC, ending up sixth with a mark of 75.1 percent. The Miners had eight regulars all connect on at least 70 percent of their attempts and had four at better than 80 percent.

In the Nov. 16 win over Lincoln, S&T went 19-of-23 at the free throw line and made all seven of its attempts in the final five minutes of play, including six in the last 28 seconds. On Nov. 25, the Miners were 25-of-27 at the line and went eight-of-eight in the final 1:08 to beat Missouri Southern. S&T also had a perfect game at the charity stripe in its Dec. 7 win over Robert Morris-Peoria, as it made all 12 of its tries that night.

Three-point shooting:

The Miners have made at least one three-point basket in 811 of the 814 games they have played since the three-point shot went into effect at the start of the 1986-87 season. At one point in the stretch, S&T had made at least one three-pointer in 597 consecutive games.

Missouri S&T hit 212 three-pointers last season, the 10th time in the 30 years in which the three-point shot has been part of college basketball in which the Miners have made at least 200 in a season. S&T, with 201 treys on the year, averaging 10.1 per game -- a mark which ranks 21st in NCAA Division II. The Miners have now made 200 three-pointers in three of the last four years and in 10 different seasons since the three-pointer came into effect.
