Today's Starting Five:

- Missouri S&T will close its 2016-17 home schedule Thursday night when it hosts Drury at Billy Key Court in a 7:30 p.m. contest. The Miners come into the game at 11-13 overall following an 89-79 loss Saturday at Maryville, while Drury is 17-8 and has won four straight, including an 81-79 overtime win at Missouri-St. Louis Saturday. Both teams have already clinched berths to the Great Lakes Valley Conference Tournament and will play in the opening round on Sunday.
- The Miners, who are currently 10th in the seeding for the GLVC Tournament, will enter the event as either the 10th, 11th or 12th seed depending on the results of games around the league on Thursday. S&T will play at one of five places on Sunday -- Lewis, UW-Parkside, Indianapolis, Truman State or Quincy -- which will be determined after all games have concluded Thursday.
- Juwan Miller continues to reach milestones in the assist category, as he tied the S&T single-game record with 13 in the Feb. 11 win over McKendree. He is one of 35 players in NCAA Division II with a 13-assist outing this season. With 130 assists on the year, he is just the second Miner in history with back-to-back 100-assist seasons and is also the first Miner since Bryce Foster in the 2013-14 season to have a double-double in points and rebounds as well as in points and assists in the same season. Miller is five assists away from the second-highest single-season total in school history.
- S&T, which has hit 10 or more three-point baskets in 16 of its 24 games this season, has now made 200 or more three-pointers in three of the last four seasons as it has 240 coming into Saturday's game. If the Miners stay at their current pace (10 per game), they will finish the year with their second-most in a year in school history.
- With a win Thursday, the Miners would match their highest single season win total since the 2003-04 season with 12, a mark S&T reached in 2013-14 and would also mark the first time since the 1948-49 and 1949-50 seasons that the Miners would have wins over Drury in back-to-back seasons.

About the Opponent

Drury:

The Panthers enter play Thursday sporting a four-game winning streak and are 17-8 on the year. Drury has clinched a berth to the GLVC Tournament and will host Rockhurst in an opening round contest Sunday as the eighth seed in the tournament.

Drury rallied for pair of road wins last week, including Saturday's 81-79 overtime victory at Missouri-St. Louis when it trailed by eight with 45 seconds remaining in regulation time. Tevin Foster hit a three-pointer with four seconds to go to send the game to overtime, then Brandon Wolfe's three-pointer with under a minute left in overtime turned out to be the game-winning basket.

Foster leads the Panthers in scoring with an average of 13.7 points per game and ranks eighth in the GLVC with 112 assists while ranking as the league's third-best free throw shooter at 90.2 percent. He is one of four Panthers averaging in double figures along with Isaac Johnson at 12.4 points per game, John Williams at 10.8 per game and Joshua Palmer with an average of 10.6 a contest.

Johnson, a freshman, has a team-high 61 three-point baskets and Wolfe has connected on 45.8 percent of his long-range tries. Drury's top rebounder is Douglas Moore with an average of 5.4 per game. As a team, the Panthers are shooting 49.3 percent from the field.

Series vs. Drury:

The Panthers lead the all-time series with Missouri S&T 78-33 and won the earlier meeting between the teams 92-72 in Springfield on Dec. 10, as they shot 55.2 percent from the floor and over 61 percent in the second half of the contest.

Drury holds a 22-1 record against the Miners in GLVC play since the two schools joined the league together prior to the 2005-06 season, but the one Miner win in that stretch came on Drury's last visit to Rolla on Dec. 12, 2015 when S&T won 74-56. That win snapped a 21-game Panther winning streak in the series.

GLVC Tournament scenarios:

Missouri S&T has clinched a berth to the GLVC Tournament for the first time since 2014 and will play a first round game Sunday on the road as the 10th, 11th or 12th seed. The S&T-Drury matchup -- along with five other games in the league Thursday -- could have a bearing on where S&T will play Sunday. The conference will announce the official bracket shortly after play has concluded Thursday night.

Projecting it out...:

With Missouri S&T's season heading down the stretch -- at least two games remain on the slate -- a number of Miners are on pace to reach some top marks for a single year.

With 130 assists on the year -- the third-most in the GLVC -- Juwan Miller is on pace to finish with 141 assists, which would be the second-best mark in a season all-time. He is just the second Miner in the history to have 100 or more in back-to-back seasons; the other being DeAndre Johnson, who had 111 assists in 2002-03 and 108 the following year.

Meanwhile, at his current rate, Jalen Myers will finish the year with 71 three-point baskets, which would be just shy of the top 10 for a single year. However, even if he doesn't reach the 10th place spot of (72), Myers is on pace to to record the most three-pointers in a season by a Miner since Jermaine Burks made 75 in the 2004-05 campaign.

No Miner has finished a season shooting 60 percent or better from the field (with three field goals made per game) since Brian Westre in 2003-04, but Dulan Scott has a chance to reach that mark as he is at 59.4 percent on the year. In addition, the Miners have had at least one player shoot 40 or better from three-point range in each of the last three years (with one made per game) and currently have two players (Myers and Ervin Sarajlic) over that 40 percent threshold; all three have made enough to qualify.

At 51.9 percent from three-point range, Sarajlic is also threatening S&T's single-year mark of 52 percent that is held by Duane Huddleston.

Hitting the offensive glass:

The Miners finished last season as the top-ranked offensive rebounding team in the GLVC, pulling down just under 14 per game. That mark ranked 14th in NCAA Division II.

S&T has an average of 12.5 offensive rebounds in the first 24 games of this season, which is second in the GLVC heading into Thursday's contest. Individually, Rokas Paulauskas, who has 75 offensive boards, leads the GLVC with 3.3 per game.

Three-point shooting:*

The Miners have made at least one three-point basket in 815 of the 818 games they have played since the three-point shot went into effect at the start of the 1986-87 season. At one point in the stretch, S&T had made at least one three-pointer in 597 consecutive games.

S&T, with 240 treys, is averaging 10 per game this year -- a mark which ranks 20th in NCAA Division II. The Miners have now made 200 three-pointers in three of the last four years and in 10 different seasons since the three-pointer came into effect.
