Today's Starting Five:

- Missouri S&T will play in the Great Lakes Valley Conference Tournament for the fourth time ever and first time since 2014 when it faces Truman State Sunday at 3 p.m. in Kirksville, Mo. S&T, 12-13 overall and 6-12 in the GLVC, will face a 20-8 Bulldog team that currently holds the seventh spot in the NCAA Division II Midwest Regional rankings. The Miners beat Truman 96-91 in Kirksville on Jan. 28 in the only meeting between the teams this year.
- The Miners, who come into the tournament as the No. 11 seed, are seeking to reach the GLVC quarterfinals for the first time since becoming a member of the league. S&T is also looking for its first-ever win away from home in a post-season tournament game and first conference tournament win since 1996.
- Juwan Miller continues to reach milestones in the assist category, as he tied the S&T single-game record with 13 in the Feb. 11 win over McKendree. He is one of 35 players in NCAA Division II with a 13-assist outing this season. With 136 assists on the year, he is just the second Miner in history with back-to-back 100-assist seasons and is also the first Miner since Bryce Foster in the 2013-14 season to have a double-double in points and rebounds as well as in points and assists in the same season. After dishing out six assists in Thursday's win over Drury, Miller now owns the second-highest single-season total in school history.
- S&T, which has hit 10 or more three-point baskets in 17 of its 25 games this season, has now made 200 or more three-pointers in three of the last four seasons as it has 252 coming into Sunday's game. That mark is the second-most in a year in school history.
- With a win Sunday, the Miners would reach the 13-win mark in a season for the first time since winning 14 in the 2003-04 campaign. The Miners matched their highest win total since then -- which came in 2013-14 -- with Thursday's win over Drury as S&T got to the 12-win plateau.

About the Opponent

Truman State:

The Bulldogs enter Sunday's opening round game with a 20-8 overall record and finished 12-6 in the GLVC following a 97-92 home loss Thursday to Quincy. Truman had six players in double figures -- led by Kyle Kanaskie's 19 points -- and shot 54.5 percent from the field, but Quincy made 64.8 percent of its shots en route to winning the outright GLVC west title.

Jake Velky, who had 24 points in the first meeting with S&T in January, leads Truman with an average of 16.3 points per game which ranks 10th in the conference. Velky also ranks second in the league in three-pointers made with 85, seven of them coming in the earlier game with the Miners and has made them at a clip of 46.4 percent, 11th in Division II.

Truman has the league's top three-point shooter in Kanaskie, who has connected on 52.9 percent of his long-range tries this season, while Cory Myers, a 13.9 points per game scorer, has hit 43.9 percent of his attempts from beyond the arc and also ranks fourth in the GLVC with 52 steals.

Connor Erickson is also averaging 12.6 points a game and is the Bulldogs' top rebounder with 6.8 a game, while Myers has 131 assists and Dwight Sistrunk has recorded 123.

Truman State was ranked seventh in last week's NCAA Division II Midwest regional rankings as one of five GLVC teams among the top 10.

Series vs. Truman State:

The Bulldogs hold a 95-48 lead in a series that dates back to 1923 -- including well over 100 meetings while playing in the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association. Since S&T left the MIAA, the teams have played just five times and four have been since Truman became a GLVC member in 2013.

The Miners won the earlier matchup between the teams 96-91 in Pershing Arena on Jan. 28, as Telloy Simon led five from S&T in double figures with 22 points, while Juwan Miller had 17 points, Jalen Myers 17 and Randy Holmes 16.

Miners in GLVC Tournament:

Missouri S&T is making its fourth appearance in the GLVC men's basketball tournament since joining the league prior to the 2005-06 season and is looking for its first win in the event. S&T lost games to Northern Kentucky in 2010, Kentucky Wesleyan in 2012 and Missouri-St. Louis in 2014. The Miners are seeking their first post-season conference tournament win since 1996, when it won the MIAA Tournament by beating Central Missouri and their first-ever win away from home in a conference post-season tournament.

Projecting it out...:

With Missouri S&T's season heading down the stretch, a number of Miners are on pace to reach some top marks for a single year.

With 136 assists on the year -- the third-most in the GLVC -- Juwan Miller will finish the year with the second-most in a season in school history. In addition, he is just the second Miner in the history to have 100 assists or more in back-to-back seasons; the other being DeAndre Johnson, who had 111 in 2002-03 and 108 the following year. Miller also has 52 steals, which is tied for the ninth-most in a year in Miner history.

Meanwhile, Jalen Myers has connected 70 times from three-point range and with two more would tie Scott Holly for the 10th-most in a year. He is the first Miner to make at least 70 in season in over a decade, as Jermaine Burks made 75 in the 2004-05 campaign.

The Miners have had at least one player shoot 40 or better from three-point range in each of the last three years (with one made per game) and currently have two players (Myers and Ervin Sarajlic) over that 40 percent threshold; both have made enough to qualify.

At 51.1 percent from three-point range, Sarajlic is also threatening S&T's single-year mark of 52 percent that is held by Duane Huddleston.

Hitting the offensive glass:

The Miners finished last season as the top-ranked offensive rebounding team in the GLVC, pulling down just under 14 per game. That mark ranked 14th in NCAA Division II.

S&T has an average of 12.6 offensive rebounds in the first 25 games of this season, which is second in the GLVC heading into Sunday's contest. Individually, Rokas Paulauskas, who has 80 offensive boards, leads the GLVC with 3.3 per game.

Three-point shooting:

The Miners have made at least one three-point basket in 816 of the 819 games they have played since the three-point shot went into effect at the start of the 1986-87 season. At one point in the stretch, S&T had made at least one three-pointer in 597 consecutive games.

S&T, with 252 treys, is averaging 10.1 per game this year -- a mark which ranks 18th in NCAA Division II. The Miners have now made 200 three-pointers in three of the last four years and in 10 different seasons since the three-pointer came into effect.

The 252 three-pointers are the second-most in a season in school history, trailing only the total of 286 made by the 2003-04 Miners.
