The 2014 Missouri S&T football media guide was produced by the sports information office at Missouri S&T, with assistance from Joann Stiritz and Megan Kean-O'Brien in the university's publications office. Photos and other information were provided by Brad Rupert, Scott Cidlik and sports information directors from opposing institutions.

MEDIA FACTS AND INFORMATION

Information for Incoming Media

Credentials for Miner games: Credentials will be assigned to news media covering the game. Press passes must be requested at least one day in advance of the game to be covered. Please make all requests to S&T sports information director John Kean; phone number is (573) 341-4140 and e-mail is jkean@mst.edu.

Game services: Media representatives will receive a game program and game notes prior to the contest, halftime statistics, and a final game packet including play-by-play of the action. Refreshments and a pre-game meal are also available.

Interview policy: Post-game interviews with Miner players are allowed. Please inform S&T sports information director John Kean if you wish to interview S&T player(s) near the end of the game and he will make the player(s) available in a designated area. Access to the S&T locker room is prohibited. Head Coach Tyler Fenwick will be available for interviews in the press box following his post-game radio show. All interviews with Miner players and coaches during the week must be cleared through the S&T sports information office. Interviews with opposing players following the game must be arranged with that school's sports information director.

On the Web: Information on Missouri S&T athletics is available online at www.minerathletics.com. At that site, you can receive up-to-date information on the university's 15 athletic teams and link into many other sites on the Internet, such as the NCAA, NCAA Division II and other NCAA Division II institutions.

ALLGOOD-BAILEY STADIUM

Fans attending Miner football games have beautiful surroundings to watch games on the campus. Allgood-Bailey Stadium is in its 48th year as the home of the Miners and the facility has undergone a few changes over the years. The newest change to the stadium came in the most recent off-season with the installation of an artificial playing surface, a project jointly funded by the Missouri S&T student body as one of two turf fields added to the athletic complex.

The facility has also had some makeovers that took place after the 2000, 2005 and 2010 seasons. In 2000, thanks to a $1.5 million gift from alumnus and former Miner player Keith Bailey and his wife, Pat, the donation led to the construction of lights, a new restroom and concession facility for the stadium and an all-weather track for the university's track and field program. In the summer of 2006, the locker room facilities were renovated and the seating areas on both sides of the stadium were updated in 2011.

During the groundbreaking ceremony in October 2000, S&T officials announced that the stadium complex would be named Allgood-Bailey Stadium in honor of retired S&T coach Dewey Allgood. Bailey, a 1964 graduate of S&T who served as chair, president and chief executive officer of The Williams Companies Inc. in Tulsa, says Allgood was a major influence during Bailey's years at S&T.

Allgood spent 40 years as a coach at the university and was the Miners' head football coach when the facility, built as part of a package with the Gale Bullman Multi-Purpose Building, opened for play in 1967.

The stadium retained the name of the old field which hosted Miner football from 1915 to 1966. It was named for alumnus Daniel Cowan Jackling, who donated $5,000 to construct the original Jackling Field that stood just south of Bishop Avenue; the location is now the site of several campus buildings near the Curtis Laws Wilson Library. A plaque on campus between the Humanities/Social Science and Computer Science buildings marks the spot where the original field was located.

The current facility seats 8,000 spectators, with a steel grandstand on the east side and another set of bleachers on the opposite side. A dressing room facility, which includes locker rooms, meeting rooms, storage areas and offices, is located at the south end of the facility. The 810-square-foot stadium press box stands atop the west stands.

The first game in the facility was played in 1967, before the stadium was completed. A total of 5,000 temporary bleachers were used during the first year and the complex was completed by the start of the 1969 season. The 73rd Missouri General Assembly provided $2 million for the construction project in 1965.

ABOUT MISSOURI S&T

Campus overview

Missouri S&T is one of the top technological research universities in the nation. Surrounded by Ozarks scenery (Rolla is about 100 miles west of St. Louis), the campus is accessible, safe and friendly. Known for its engineering programs, S&T also offers degrees in the sciences, liberal arts, humanities and business. Over 8,000 students are currently enrolled in classes, making S&T big enough to accommodate a diverse population but small enough for individuals to stand out.

S&T students are expected to actively participate in the processes of getting an education, whether that means joining a student design team, participating in intercollegiate athletics, conducting research with faculty members, helping to assure safe drinking water in a Central American community, or planning activities for the campus's next St. Pat's celebration. Upon graduation, these experienced students are in extremely high demand by companies across the nation and around the world.

Without exceptional faculty members and involved alumni, it wouldn't be possible to give these students a world-class education. The campus currently employs astronauts, bridge builders, chemists, filmmakers, historians, pyrotechnicians, rocket scientists, solar energy experts and video bloggers. S&T graduates, many of whom give time and money back to the university, work on the International Space Station, play professional poker, run NASCAR teams, search for cancer cures, win Academy Awards and lead Fortune 500 companies.

S&T is a campus in motion. With more than 200 student organizations on campus, there's a place for everyone to get involved. Students can be seen pedaling human-powered vehicles in the shadow of Toomey Hall, the new mechanical and aerospace engineering complex, or building solar-powered cars and houses. Mining engineers are growing oil-producing algae underground while materials scientists are learning how to mend broken bones with glass in their laboratories.

Founded in 1870, the University of Missouri School of Mines and Metallurgy was the first technological institution west of the Mississippi River. One of four campuses in the University of Missouri System, the name was changed to the University of Missouri-Rolla in 1964 and changed to its current name of Missouri University of Science and Technology in 2008.

ATHLETICS AT MISSOURI S&T

About athletics

Missouri S&T boasts a competitive athletic program as a member of NCAA Division II and the Great Lakes Valley Conference in all of its sports. The university fields eight men's and seven women's varsity teams.

Missouri S&T student-athletes have shown success at the national level both on the field and in the classroom.

On the field

S&T has had teams that have finished in the top 10 at the national level for 14 of the past 17 seasons. S&T has won four NCAA national championships on an individual basis in swimming during the past seven seasons, with Zlatan Hamzic capturing the title in the 200-yard breaststroke at the 2009 NCAA Division II Championships. S&T's 200-yard freestyle relay team won back-to-back Division II championships in 2001 and 2002, while the 400-yard freestyle relay team took home a national title in 2002. The Miner swimming team has posted three top-four finishes on the national level since 2007, headed by a runner-up finish at the 2008 national meet.

Missouri S&T's men's track and field team won the 2014 GLVC out-door championship and swept the GLVC meets in 2009, it combined with the women's team to send eight individuals to national competition -- and all of them finished among the top eight to earn All-America honors.

S&T's men's soccer, women's basketball, baseball and volleyball teams have all qualified for NCAA post-season play during the course of the last three athletic seasons, with the men's soccer team reaching the championship game of the 2010 NCAA Midwest Regional. Since 1935, Missouri S&T athletic teams have won or shared 38 league titles in the conference in which it was affiliated.

MISSOURI S&T ALL-AMERICA SELECTIONS

Ed Kromka (1941): Kromka was the first Miner to earn All-America honors as he was named to the Little All-America Team. Kromka, who died in 1971, was one of the charter inductees into the Miner Athletic Hall of Fame in 1987.

Frank Winfield (1969): Winfield was named to the Kodak All-America Team at offensive guard after a standout year that saw S&T post its first winning record in years. Winfield was inducted into Miner Athletic Hall of Fame in 1990.

Merle Dillow (1974): Dillow was chosen to the Kodak All-America Team after a 50-catch, 786-yard season. He shares the record with eight touchdown catches in one season. Dillow was inducted into the Miner Athletic Hall of Fame in 2000.

Bill Grantham (1980): Grantham was named to the Kodak All-America Team after helping lead the Miners to a 10-0 record and No. 10 final national ranking in 1980. He holds the MIAA record with 29 career interceptions. Grantham was inducted into the Miner Athletic Hall of Fame in 1997.

Eivind Listerud (1993): Listerud was the chosed to Kodak's All-America team following the 1993 season when he was one of the nation's most accurate placekickers. Listerud made 12 of his 13 field goal attempts and scored a teamhigh 56 points. He also earned secondteam GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America honors that season.

Cole Drussa (2003-04): Drussa was the first Miner player to earn All-America honors in two different seasons, doing so following the 2003 and 2004 campaigns. In 2003, he earned second-team All-America honors from Football Gazette after a year in which he was among the national reception leaders for tight ends.

Drussa caught 55 passes for 601 yards on the season with five touchdowns in 2003. The following season, Drussa was a consensus All-America pick after catching 69 passes for 790 yards and seven touchdowns. He was a first-team All-America pick by Daktronics and Football Gazette, second-team by D2Football.com and third team on the Associated Press Little All-America Team. In addition, he was a first-team choice to ESPN The Magazine's Academic All-America Team.

Joe Winters (2006): Winters was named to Football Gazette's All-America squad as an honorable mention pick after breaking the school record for passing yards in a season with 3,724. Winters also threw 35 touchdown passes on the season to earn first-team all-conference honors in the Great Lakes Football Conference.

Ashton Gronewold (2005-06-07): Gronewold completed a standout career in the 2007 season by being selected to the Associated Press Little All-America First Team, Daktronics and Football Gazette second team and D2Football.com third team. In 2007, he posted a school record 2,250 yards and was named a regional finalist for the Harlon Hill Award, given to the top player in NCAA Division II. As a junior, he was selected to the Associated Press Little All-America second team, Football Gazette's third team and D2Football.com's honorable mention squad after a season where he broke the S&T single-season marks for receiving. He holds the Miners' seasonal marks for receptions with 87 (set in 2007), yards with 1,120 (2006) and touchdown catches with 17 set in 2005, as well as the career marks in all three categories. In 2005, Gronewold netted honorable mention All-America laurels from Football Gazette. He was named Great Lakes Football Conference's "Offensive Player of the Year" in 2006.

Bryan Crider (2009): Crider earned a spot on the Associated Press Little All-America team following a senior year in which he caught 57 passes for 604 yards and four touchdowns. The 57 catches gave Crider a total of 142 for his career, the most by any tight end in Miner history. During the season, Crider had a 12-catch, 134-yard performance against Saint Francis (Ind.), including a key 24-yard reception in S&T's game-winning drive.

Eddie Rascon (2012): Rascon was named to the Division II squad as an honorable mention pick by Beyond College Sports Network following his junior year, a season in which he tied for 10th nationally in quarterback sacks with 13 and had 14.5 tackles behind the line of scrimmage from his defensive tackle position. He was tied for second on the team with 44 tackles in the Miners' 10-1 campaign.

Chris Emesih (2013): Emesih, the GLVC's "Defensive Player of the Year" in 2013, was chosen to the Beyond College Sports All-America squad after a season in which he posted a team-high 100 tackles and earned first-team All-GLVC honors. Emesih had two 100-tackle years in his four seasons at Missouri S&T.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA SELECTIONS

S&T is proud of its academic reputation as one of the top institutions for science and technology. The results are shown in the consistently strong performance of the student-athletes on the S&T campus.

During the 2013-14 academic year, Missouri S&T boasted 136 student-athletes that were named to the allacademic team by the Great Lakes Valley Conference. S&T was one of 10 institutions in the 16-member conference with at least 130 members on the squad.

Missouri S&T also had 22 student-athletes chosen as receipients of the GLVC's Council of Presidents awards, tying for the fourth-most of any school in the 16-team league.

S&T student-athletes have won 78 Academic All-America awards, as selected by CoSIDA and its program sponsors, and 213 Academic All-District awards during the past 22 years. In addition, numerous teams and individuals have been honored for their success as studentathletes by their various national organizations.

In the past year, a record eight S&T student-athletes earned Capital One Academic All-America honors and 11 individuals were named to their selected Academic All-District teams during the 2013-14 season. S&T has had 54 Academic All-America selections since since 2000, the fifth-best total in NCAA Division II.

Brian Peterson is the most recent Miner to earn Academic All-America honors, landing his first team award following the 2012 season.

HEAD COACH TYLER FENWICK

Fenwick, who had served as the offensive coordinator at Missouri Western State University for the six seasons prior to being named as the Miners' head coach on March 20, 2013, led the Miners to victories in five of the final six games to allow S&T to grab a share of second place in the Great Lakes Valley Conference with Saint Joseph's and Truman State.

He is the 19th head coach in the history of the Miner program and just the seventh since 1937.

While at Missouri Western, Fenwick was part of a program that played in the post-season in each of the six seasons that he was on the staff, including an appearance in the NCAA Division II quarterfinals in 2012. Prior to that, he spent five years on the staff at Occidental College in California – the last four as offensive coordinator – and one season as offensive coordinator at Minnesota State University Moorhead, where the Dragons posted their first winning season in seven years.

In the 2012 season, Missouri Western won the outright Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association championship for the first time in school history and had one of the nation's top offensive units that included running back Michael Hill, a finalist for the Harlon Hill Award and second-ranked rusher in the nation in NCAA Division II. The Griffons averaged 458.6 yards of total offense last season, including 264.4 per game on the ground and 41.6 points a game; the latter two figures ranked among the top 10 nationally in Division II.

Missouri Western scored 30 or more points in 11 of its 14 games in its 12-2 campaign and set a school record with 582 points scored.

In 2011, the Griffons averaged 35.5 points a game and rushed for 240.6 yards per game but prior to that season, had one of the better passing attacks in the MIAA behind quarterback Drew Newhart, who was the conference's "Freshman of the Year" in Fenwick's first season as offensive coordinator. Missouri Western set its single-season scoring record of 451 points – the mark broken in 2012 – during the 2009 season and broke a number of the school's passing records in those seasons.

During the six years Fenwick spent as offensive coordinator at Missouri Western, the Griffons averaged 432.8 points per season and 35.1 points per game. As a team, the Griffons went 53-18 and played in the NCAA Division II playoffs three times as well as making three bowl appearances.

Fenwick served as the offensive coordinator at Minnesota State-Moorhead in 2006 and guided an offensive unit that improved its yardage totals by 65 percent from the previous year, as the Dragons won four of their last five games to finish with a 6-5 record.

At Occidental, he was the wide receivers coach during the 2001 season as the Tigers went 8-1 and won the Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference championship, then moved into the offensive coordinator role the following season. Over the four years in which he served in that role, Occidental had a 33-9 record, won two SCIAC titles and made two appearances in the NCAA Division III playoffs, winning twice in the 2004 tournament. During those five years, he coached four all-conference quarterbacks and twice had the conference's "Offensive Player of the Year".

Fenwick is originally from Los Angeles, Calif., and graduated from Chaminade College Preparatory High School. He attended Los Angeles Valley College and the University of New Mexico, where he earned his bachelor's degree in university studies in 1999. A two-year letterman for the Lobos as a wide receiver, he caught 14 passes during the two years in which he played at UNM.

He began his coaching career at the high school level at Birmingham High School in Lake Balboa, Calif., as the program's offensive coordinator, helping guide the team to a conference championship and playoff appearance as it finished with a 10-2 record.

Fenwick and his wife, Angela, have three children, daughter Kylie and sons Kayden and Kiptyn. His father, Jim, was a highly successful coach at the collegiate and high school levels in California.

COACHING STAFF

Brett Sykes, Assistant Coach (Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Line)

Brett Sykes, a former defensive lineman at Ohio University, is in his fifth season on the Missouri S&T coaching staff in 2014 and will serve as the Miners' defensive coordinator this year. In addition, Sykes will work with the Miners' defensive line as he has done in his previous four seasons on the staff.

The Miners had one of the top defensive units in the GLVC and in NCAA Division II during the 2013 season, finishing second in the nation in pass efficiency defense, 14th in passing yards allowed and 13th in total defense. The Miners were second in the GLVC in total defense behind league champion Indianapolis, allowing just 304.9 yards per contest and holding each of their final nine foes to 338 or fewer yards behind the GLVC's "Defensive Player of the Year" in 2013, linebacker Chris Emesih.

During the 2012 season, when the Miners finished with a 10-1 record, the S&T defense set a new school record with 45 quarterback sacks and led the nation in turnover margin, forcing more than two turnovers per game than its opponents. S&T ranked 10th in NCAA Division II in total defense as it allowed just 293.1 yards per game during the 2012 campaign.

In the 2011 season, he guided a defensive line contingent that recorded a large percentage of the team's 34 quarterback sacks and 91 tackles behind the line of scrimmage.

Sykes spent seven seasons in the Ohio program, five as a player from 2003-07 and two as defensive quality control working with the defensive line and assistant strength and conditioning during the 2009 campaign. As a player, he appeared in every game throughout his collegiate career at defensive tackle and totaled 92 tackles during his four seasons of eligibility.

As a senior, he finished with 37 tackles (15 solo) from the defensive tackle spot and finished fifth in the Mid-America Conference among defensive linemen with 27 tackles during the 2005 season.

Originally from Cleveland, Ohio, Sykes received his bachelor's degree in recreation management from Ohio in 2007. Sykes and his wife, Malory, live in Rolla and have one daughter.

Michael Burton, Assistant Coach (Wide Receivers)

Michael Burton, a former quarterback at Missouri Western State University, is in his second season on the Missouri S&T coaching staff this season as the running backs coach.

Burton spent six seasons on the Griffons' staff, working with the running backs during that period of time for an offensive unit that was headed by S&T head coach Tyler Fenwick. He worked with Harlon Hill Award finalist Michael Hill over his final two seasons at MWSU, a player who rushed for 2,168 yards and 16 touchdowns during the 2012 season and for a school record 3,473 yards during his two seasons at Missouri Western to earn All-America honors.

As a player for the Griffons from 2003-06, Burton threw for 3,151 yards passing and 10 touchdowns.

Burton and his wife, Lisa, live in Rolla.

COACHING STAFF

Mike McFarland (Offensive Coordinator/Offensive Line)

Mike McFarland joins the Missouri S&T coaching staff for the 2014 season, where he will serve as the offensive coordinator and work with the offensive line.

McFarland comes to S&T from Temple City High School in Los Angeles, Calif., where he was the head coach for the last four seasons and led that team to the playoffs in two of them. That was after a season at Pasadena High School, where he led a team that had gone 1-9 in the 2008 season to a 5-5 mark in that year when he was making his head coaching debut.

Prior to his head coaching stints at the high school level, McFarland had worked with current Miner head coach Tyler Fenwick at three of his previous stops. The first was at Occidental College in California, where he worked on the staff as the outside linebackers coach for two seasons and then as the offensive line coach on the staff with Fenwick in the 2004 and 2005 seasons.

In those two years, Occidental made the NCAA Division III playoff field – including a national quarterfinal appearance in 2004 – and had the top offense in the Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference the following season when it averaged better than 39 points per game.

McFarland moved on to the NCAA Division II ranks the next season as the running backs coach at Minnesota State University at Moorhead, where he helped guide the team from a 1-10 mark to a 6-5 record in 2006 behind all-Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference running back Enol Gilles.

In the 2007 and 2008 campaigns, McFarland worked on the staff at Missouri Western State University as the tight ends coach, where the Griffons played in bowl games in both seasons. One of the players that he coached, tight end Alvaro Prado, was selected as the team's most valuable player.

He began his coaching career as the offensive line coach at Muir High School in 2000.

McFarland is a 1997 graduate of California Lutheran University with a bachelor's degree in social sciences. He and his wife, Tiffany, have two daughters, Breanna and Brittany and a son, Brendan.

Kylle Shoemaker, Assistant Coach (Defensive Backs)

Kylle Shoemaker is in his second season as an assistant coach at Missouri S&T and will work with the linebackers during the 2014 season.

Shoemaker came to Missouri S&T from Azuza Pacific University in California, where he coached the team's hybrid linebackers and handled all of the team's video productions during the 2012 season. Prior to that, he spent three years as a student assistant at Cal Polytechnic University.

Shoemaker is originally from Solano Beach, Calif., where he was a three-year starter at linebacker at Santa Fe Christian High School. He was a two-time All-Coastal League selection for his play and finished second on the team in tackles (94) for the Eagles in 2005 as they advanced to the California Interscholastic Federation championship game. He had 84 tackles as a 2004 junior when Santa Fe Christian won the CIF crown and also lettered in volleyball for the Eagles.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business from Cal Poly in 2012 and worked on his master's degree in organizational leadership at Azuza Pacific. Shoemaker and his wife, Melissa, live in Rolla.

COACHING STAFF

Pat Lang, Assistant Coach (Running Backs)

Pat Lang, a standout lineman for Missouri S&T over the last two seasons, is in his second year as a member of the Miner coaching staff. Lang, a center for the Miners, will coach the team's running backs this fall after working with the offensive tackles and tight ends a season ago.

Lang was a first-team all-conference selection in each of his two seasons in a Miner uniform, earning first-team honors and the "Offensive Lineman of the Year" award from the Great Lakes Football Conference after the 2011 campaign. In the first season of play in the Great Lakes Valley Conference in 2012, Lang was one of four Miner offensive linemen to earn all-league honors after the team set a single-season record for points scored.

Missouri S&T scored 458 points last season and averaged 440.7 yards per game. The offensive line allowed the Miner running attack to average 175.1 yards per game and allowed only 13 quarterback sacks in 11 games as the Miners went 10-1.

Lang is from Pago Pago, American Samoa and spent two seasons playing at New Mexico Military Institute prior to joining the S&T program prior to the 2011 season.

Tim Yex, Assistant Coach (Linebackers)

Tim Yex begins his second season as a member of the Missouri S&T football staff this season as an assistant coach for the linebackers. Last season. Yex worked with the Miner defensive linemen.

Yex played three seasons at Illinois College as a linebacker and finished the 2012 season with 11 tackles, including four in a game against Lawrence. He also played at William Penn. He is originally from Carthage, Ill., where he earned first-team All-conference honors at Illini West High School and was a first-team academic all-state and all-conference selection.

Zach Leach, Assistant Coach (Tight Ends)

Former Miner offensive lineman Zach Leach joins the Miner coaching staff this season and will serve as the team's tight ends coach. Leach played for four seasons in the S&T program along the offensive line and was a starter at tackle for a period of that time, including the 2011 season when the Miners finished with a 6-5 record.

Leach, who is originally from Liberty, Mo., is completing work on his bachelor's degree in chemical engineering.

Christian Philipp, Assistant Coach (Defensive Assistant)

Christian Philipp joins the Missouri S&T football staff this season as an assistant coach for the defensive line. Philipp played collegiately at Illinois College as a tight end and linebacker. He recorded 13 tackles from the linebacker spot during the 2012 season.

Philipp is originally from Arnold, Mo., and played his prep football and Seckman High School.

Adam Peden, Assistant Coach (Special Teams)

Adam Peden begins his first season as a member of the Miner coaching staff after a standout playing career at Missouri S&T as a placekicker.

During his four seasons in a Miner uniform, Peden, who is originally from Bloomington, Ill., connected on 63 of his 64 extra point attempts and on 19-of-30 field goal tries, including 11 during the 2013 season when he led S&T with 58 points. Four of his 19 career field goals came from beyond 40 yards, including a career-best 47-yard kick last season in a victory over Wisconsin-LaCrosse.

Dr. Cheryl B. Schrader, Missouri S&T Chancellor

Dr. Cheryl B. Schrader became the 21st chancellor of Missouri University of Science and Technology on April 2, 2012. A former president of the IEEE Control Systems Society, with more than 10,000 members worldwide, Schrader is one of the few female engineers to ascend to the top leadership position of a college or university in the United States.

Previously, Schrader was associate vice president for strategic research initiatives at Boise State University, a position she held from February 2011 until her appointment as S&T chancellor. While dean of Boise State's College of Engineering from 2003 to 2011, the college's undergraduate engineering enrollment increased by 60 percent, graduate enrollment increased by 36 percent, and funding for research grants and contracts in the college more than tripled.

Schrader earned a bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering from Valparaiso University in 1984. She earned a master of science and Ph.D. degrees in electrical engineering from the University of Notre Dame in 1987 and 1991, respectively. Her research background is in the area of systems and control. A past president of the IEEE Control Systems Society, she continues to serve as a member of the ABET Engineering Accreditation Commission. This commission, which is dedicated to providing world leadership in stimulating innovation and excellence in engineering, today accredits 2,100 engineering programs at more than 400 colleges and universities.

Schrader began her teaching and research career at the University of Notre Dame while undertaking internships and consulting work with McDonnell Douglas Astronautics Co. in the early 1980s and Chimera Research in the early 1990s. Following a brief period as an adjunct assistant professor at Rice University in 1991, Schrader moved to the University of Texas at San Antonio, where she rose to serve as a tenured professor of electrical engineering and associate dean at both a college of sciences and a college of engineering. She then joined Boise State in 2003.

Passionate about increasing interest in STEM (science, technology, engineering and mathematics) education, Schrader's current research interests focus on creating and assessing innovative learning methods to help students of all ages succeed in the STEM areas.

Schrader is a recipient of the Presidential Award for Excellence in Science, Mathematics and Engineering Mentoring from the White House (2005); the IEEE Education Society Hewlett-Packard/Harriett B. Rigas Award; the Idaho Women Making History Award; and the WebCT Exemplary Online Course Award. She was also named one of Valparaiso University's Top 150 Most Influential People.

Dr. Debra Robinson, Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs

Dr. Debra A.G. Robinson is in her 13th year as the campus's vice chancellor for student affairs. She took over the position Jan. 1, 2003, after spending two years as S&T's associate vice chancellor for student and international affairs.

Robinson joined the S&T student affairs staff in 1980 as a counseling psychologist. She later was assistant director and associate director of the S&T Counseling Center, and served as director of S&T's Center for Personal and Professional Development from 1990 through 2001. In 2001, she was appointed associate vice chancellor for student and international affairs.

She is responsible for directing S&T's leadership development programs, coordinating several administrative functions within the division, coordinating staff development and training efforts, and managing relationships with external constituents. She also serves as an adjunct faculty member in the engineering management department.

Robinson earned her bachelor of arts degree in psychology from the University of Illinois Springfield in 1976 and her master of arts and doctorate degrees in counseling psychology from the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana in 1977 and 1980, respectively. She is a member of the American Psychological Association, the International Coaching Federation and the Society of Psychologists in Management. She also remains active as a management and coaching consultant, and has written numerous papers and book chapters on a broad array of topics, including leadership development, engineering education, career

Mark Mullin, Director of Athletics

Mark Mullin is in his 21st year as Missouri S&T's director of athletics where he oversees a program that has consistently finished in the top one-third of the Learfield Sports Director's Cup Standings. The Miner program has enjoyed great success both on and off the field during his tenure. Academically, Missouri S&T has had 54 Capital One Academic All-America award winners since 2000, the fifth-highest total among NCAA Division II institutions.

Over the past three years, Missouri S&T enjoyed a great deal of athletic success headlined by 14 teams participating in NCAA national competition, 21 student-athletes earning All-America honors and 136 all-conference selections from the Great Lakes Valley Conference. The success also carried over to the academic side, where this past year S&T had over 150 student-athletes post a grade point average of at least 3.5 to earn the S&T scholar-athlete award.

Under Mullin's direction, S&T has served as the host institution for the NCAA Division II Swimming and Diving Championships as well as the NCAA South Central men's regional basketball tournament, MIAA men's basketball finals, the GLVC women's basketball and men's soccer tournaments, the MIAA cross country championships and GLVC cross country and track & field championships. He led the process that allowed S&T to move its conference affiliation to the Great Lakes Valley Conference beginning in the fall of 2005.

Recently, he has led a number of significant facility projects. These projects included the completion and opening of a new state-of-the-art fitness center and varsity weight and fitness rooms; a new indoor practice facility and new sports medicine center, as well as major renovations to Allgood-Bailey Stadium which included the addition of a synthetic playing surface, lights, scoreboards and upgraded seating areas.

Among the other upgrades include: the Student Recreation Center being constructed; the addition of chair back seats and new scoreboards to the Bullman arena, and the building of a new soccer complex.

In addition to his duties as athletics director, Mullin served as swimming and diving coach for 12 years and led the Miners to a 96-27 dual meet record and seven regional championships. His final team finished third at the 1998 NCAA Division II Championships, the highest finish ever for a Miner athletic team at an NCAA championship event at the time.

Mullin has served two terms as the chair of the NCAA Division II men's and women's swimming and diving committee and has also served multiple terms on the men's basketball and football regional advisory committees for the region. He served a two-year term as the president of the MIAA after spending the two prior years as the conference's vice president prior to S&T's switch to the GLVC. He was elected and served as the conference director of athletics representative on the GLVC Executive Committee.

Mullin and his wife Joanie have four daughters, Elizabeth, Katie, Melissa, and Nina, and five grandchildren, Halle, Preslie, Roxy, Abby, and Jack.

Dr. David Westenberg, NCAA Faculty Representative

Dr. David Westenberg, professor of biological sciences at Missouri S&T, is in his second year as the university's faculty representative to the NCAA. He took over the duties this summer from

Dr. Jeff Cawlfield, who served in the role for ten years until his appointment as vice provost for undergraduate studies.

On the S&T campus, he is involved with the Helix Biological Sciences Club, SCRUBS, Phi Sigma and is a member of the American Society for Microbiology Committee on K-12 outreach.

A 1991 graduate of UCLA, Westenberg has earned a number of teaching awards in his tenure at Missouri S&T. He received the Class of '42 Alumni Excellence in Teaching award in 2000, the Extraordinary Faculty Award in 2008 and is a two-time recipient of the university's outstanding advisor award.

Westenberg also received the Alexander von Humboldt Fellow award from 1991-93 and again in 2005, the ASM Scholar-in-Residence award in 2007 and 2008 as well as the Dean's Teaching Scholar award from 2005-08.

MISSOURI S&T ADMINISTRATION

Ron Henderson, Assistant Director of Athletics

Ron Henderson, who served as the assistant director of facilities at Hutchinson Community College for the last two years, is in his second year as the assistant director of athletics at Missouri S&T.

While at Hutchinson Community College, Henderson oversaw the budgets and staff for the grounds, maintenance, custodial and security staffs at the five campus sites in the HCC system. In addition, he was directly involved in the hiring, training and supervision of positions in those areas at all five of the campuses.

Henderson has previously worked in athletics at both the collegiate and professional levels, most recently when he spent four years as operations manager for the Springfield Cardinals. In that role, he directed the core aspects of the St. Louis Cardinals' Double A minor league affiliate as it began play in southwest Missouri in 2004.

The tasks he handled included the hiring and supervising of a team of over 70 employees, as well as planning and administering the team's annual budget and handling game day operations for the staff. He worked directly with the team's hosting of the Texas League All-Star Game during the 2008 season and played a key role in the team receiving the league's "Organization of the Year" award during all four years he spent with the franchise, an award based on overall operations and fan experiences.

Prior to his tenure with the Cardinals, Henderson was assistant athletics director at Missouri State University where he helped oversee the institution's 21-sport program for nine years. Henderson's duties at MSU included the hiring, training and supervision of the event staff workers, generation of the sport budgets for the director of athletics and as the primary point of contact for post-season events hosted by Missouri State.

Among his achievements at MSU was serving as the point person for the opening event at Hammons Field, launching the stadium opening with an over-capacity crowd with zero incidents.

Debbie Hickey is in her 15th year as the university's budget and NCAA compliance officer for the university's department of intercollegiate athletics. She is also serving as S&T's senior woman administrator.

Hickey is in charge of handling all NCAA eligibility matters for the 300-plus student athletes in the Missouri S&T athletics program. She is in her 23rd year at the university, previously serving in the accounting and fiscal services office.

A native of Steelville, Mo., Hickey is a 2003 graduate of Missouri S&T with a bachelor's degree in psychology. She is a certified high school volleyball official and also runs an interior design company. Hickey and her husband, Dan, have three children and live in Rolla.

Josh Lind, Assistant Director of NCAA Compliance

Josh Lind enters his third season in the Missouri S&T athletic department after joining the administrative staff in December 2012. His primary role is to direct the day-to-day NCAA compliance operations and eligibility of Missouri S&T's approximately 375 student-athletes. Lind also assists in game administration duties and serves as advisor to M-Club. Around campus, he serves as the athletic department's representative on the Teacher Education Academic Program Committee, the STEP UP! Committee and the Office of Student Affairs Student Leadership Team.

A native of Buhler, Kansas, Lind played four years of college basketball at Mid-America Christian University in Oklahoma City, Okla. He spent the following four years at Mid-America coaching basketball, two as the men's assistant coach followed by two years as the women's head coach. After coaching, Lind became an academic advisor at the University of Oklahoma in Norman, Okla., from 2008-2011.

Norman, Okla., from 2008-2011.

Immediately prior to joining the Missouri S&T athletic staff, Lind held the position of scholarship manager for the Missouri S&T Student Financial Assistance office, a position he held since August of 2011.

He holds a bachelor's degree in behavioral science and a master's degree in leadership education, both from Mid-America

Christian. He resides in St. James, along with his wife, Ashley, four-year old daughter, Aubrey, and newborn daughter Brynlee.

Tyler Fenwick's first season at Missouri S&T got off to a slow start in the winloss column, but by the time the year ended, the Miners were again above the .500 mark in a campaign that saw a number of twists and turns. S&T won five of its last six contests to end up at 6-5 overall and tied for second place in the Great Lakes Valley Conference at 5-2.

As the 2014 season gets ready to unfold, the Miners are looking to build off of that late season momentum in an effort to make a run at the top of the GLVC. The success figures to begin with a defensive unit that ranked 13th in NCAA Division II last year and second in pass efficiency rating. It is a unit, however, that must replace the league's "Defensive Player of the Year," linebacker Chris Emesih.

The offense will bring back nearly all of its key skill position players from last fall, with a spirited competition expected at quarterback between incumbents Reed Brown and Peter Simpson and newcomer Kason Key. S&T will also have three starters back on the offensive line, two of whom are returning after suffering season-ending injuries early last year.

Missouri S&T will have a challenging start to its schedule this fall, with road non-conference games against national powers Chadron State and Midwestern State to kick things off. The Miners will return home to open its GLVC slate on the new artificial turf on Sept. 20 against Truman State -- one of the teams it shared the second place spot in the league standings with -- and will play the other coholder of the second place position, Saint Joseph's, on Oct. 4 in Rensselaer, Ind.

The Miners, who will have five home games on its 2014 slate, will also host two-time defending GLVC champion Indianapolis on Nov. 8.

Quarterbacks

For the second year in a row, Missouri S&T enters its workouts for the upcoming football season with an unclear picture as to who will open up at the quarterback position.

But unlike a year ago, when the Miners were dealing with a lack of experience at the spot, it is now a matter of sorting through a group of players with playing time under their belts and determining which one is the best fit to run the offense for second year head coach Tyler Fenwick.

Zenel Hudson led the Miners in rushing during the 2013 season, including a 222-yard performance that was the second-best in S&T history.

"There are a lot of opportunities here," Fenwick said. "We have to find the best guy that can move our offense. What kind of a quarterback – we're not sure. We want the one that will be the most efficient, not turn the ball over and be able to lead and direct our offense. He has to be one the other ten guys on offense can look up to."

The player with the most experience at the spot in a Miner uniform is junior Reed Brown, who completed over 57 percent of his passes for 1,327 yards and four touchdowns. But when Brown went down with an injury late in the first half of the Miners' game against Saint Joseph's, sophomore Peter Simpson took over as the starter for the balance of the year and led S&T to a win in not only in that contest, but in three of the last four games as well.

Simpson threw for 1,064 yards and six scores on the season, with much of that coming after taking over in the Saint Joseph's contest. All six of his scoring tosses came in the four wins he was a part of.

"Peter got better as the year went on and I think a lot of it was experience – game-to-game, learning in games what was going on and also getting a better grasp of the offense," Fenwick said.

A third quarterback in the mix is junior college transfer Kason Key, who was with the team during its spring workouts and went 12-of-16 for 144 yards during the spring game in April. Key, a sophomore, joined the S&T program from Northeastern Oklahoma A&M.

"One of the things I really learned about him was his football knowledge," Fenwick said. "He picks things up very well. He understands defenses, sees them rolling and knows different coverages -- and his brain works in that way. He knows where to go with the ball. Just throughout the 15 practices for him, it started from day one in learning the offense, so hopefully things will slow down for him as we get into fall camp."

Junior Evan Merz saw some playing time at the position last year and the Miners also return redshirt freshman Tyler Swart. Incoming freshman Lamar Wilkes could also get a long look at the spot during the pre-season.

Running Backs

A series of injuries during the 2013 season at the running back position turned into an opportunity for others to show off their abilities, now providing Missouri S&T a great deal of depth in the backfield heading into the upcoming year.

Zenel Hudson, a junior who was the Miners' top rusher from a year ago with 520 yards in seven contests, heads the group of returners in the backfield. After a season that included a 222-yard performance in a win over Wisconsin-LaCrosse, Hudson averaged 4.3 yards per carry and scored six times, but the four-plus games he missed on account of an injury provided chances for redshirt freshman Chris Kennard and true freshman DeSoto Dickson to take full advantage of.

"Zenel battled some injuries last year, but he feels good and strong coming into camp," Miner head coach Tyler Fenwick said. "He did a lot of good things for us last season and we're looking forward to having him and his experience back in there.

"We also have the young guys that were thrown into the mix as a result of the injuries," he added. "Chris was moved from receiver and did a lot of good things with the ball thanks to his speed and quickness. DeSoto also got a bunch of carries last year and finished up strong. He's bigger and stronger than he was a year ago playing as a true freshman."

Dickson finished the year second on the team in rushing with 435 yards, which included some solid efforts in the second half of the year, while Kennard – who was shifted to the backfield after the season opener – had 376 yards on the ground which included a 120-yard effort at Kentucky Wesleyan.

"We are very deep at running back," Fenwick said. "There are a lot of guys returning from last year and that's not including Scott, who we felt very good about heading into last season before he had the injury. We're anxious to get him back and see where he fits in."

Sophomore Dalton Major returns and Isaiah Culver, a wideout in 2012 who was also sidelined last season, could see snaps at the running back spot in addition to the receiver position.

"Isaiah worked most of the spring in the slot, but it gives us another dynamic in the offense and gives us the ability to play him at both spots," Fenwick said. "He did some really good things in the spring game."

Wide Receivers/Tight Ends

Similar to the look of the running back position heading into the 2014 season, Missouri S&T's wide receiver corps is filled with experienced players to give head coach Tyler Fenwick a good feeling about this emsemble as the season begins.

A great deal of that sense comes from the feeling that it is a versatile group, providing the Miners a chance to do a number of different things in the upcoming year.

The discussion on the Miner wideouts begins with a trio of seniors that had solid years in 2013, starting with Melvin Stovall, who finished second in the Great Lakes Valley Conference in receptions with 66 for 712 yards and five touchdowns. Stovall recorded the most catches ever for a first-year Miner wide receiver in the 2013 campaign and cleared the 100-yard mark on four occasions during the season.

"Melvin has had a really good off-season," Fenwick said. "He's in great shape and has gotten faster and quicker, plus he's always had great hands and is a really good route runner. We feel he has to be one of the top returning receivers in the conference."

Leon Moody finished his junior season with 46 catches for 552 yards, while Nick Taylor hauled in 38 balls for 460 yards. Moody and Taylor each had a 100-yard receiving day in a Miner victory during the second half of the season, when S&T won five of its final six games.

The depth doesn't stop with those three as sophomore Ben Matthews and Josh Corbid also figure into the equation. Matthews had 28 receptions as a redshirt freshman, while Corbid, a 6-5 senior, had 14 catches at a clip of nearly 12 yards per catch.

Senior Forrestal Hickman heads up an offensive line that is one of the Miners' most experienced units heading into the 2014 campaign.

"We have a lot of depth at the position with Taylor and Moody, who started in every game, along with Corbid and Matthews," Fenwick said. "In addition, we signed Spencer Elrod from the junior college level who will give us another dynamic as a return man -- and he could also work his way into the mix at receiver."

The Miners also have three additional squadmembers from last season in the fold at receiver as well in Isaiah Culver, who missed the entire 2013 season with an injury but caught 26 passes in 2012 and Chris McCall, who sat out last year after transferring from Bacone College.

Elrod, a transfer from Los Angeles Valley College, heads the newcomers who will compete for a role at the position.

At tight end, the Miners have three experienced players at the spot led by senior Jake Giljum, who had six receptions and a touchdown a year ago. Cody Burgess, a junior, also returns after dealing with an injury issue last year and Dustin Schindler also returns for his sophomore season at tight end.

"I feel good about this group at tight end," Fenwick said. "Giljum can catch the ball and block, while Schindler is a player we can use in many different ways and possibly even move him into the slot at times. Cody is a big, physical player that will also help us in a number of manners."

Offensive Line

As the pre-season workouts for the 2014 season get set to begin at Missouri S&T, the Miners' offensive line situation is in much better shape that it was a year earlier, when S&T had to replace 80 percent of its starting offensive line prior to the start of the season with a contingent that was somewhat green.

Four players with experience as starters return to the mix for the upcoming year and S&T head coach Tyler Fenwick feels that this is one of the deepest groups he has ever had the chance to coach at this particular position in his career.

"I'll say this about our offensive line – there's more depth than I think I've ever had there," Fenwick said. "Now there are some players that are a little inexperienced, but after going through the spring, we feel very good about where we're at.

Senior Forrestal Hickman, a two-time All-Great Lakes Valley Conference performer, is expected to lead the way from his left tackle position. Last season, the Miners rushed for 153.6 yards per game and went over the 200-yard mark as a team on four different occasions, while winning four of the five games in which they ran for 180 or better.

Hickman will be joined on the opposite side of the line by senior Mark Parra, who started during the first five games of the year before he suffered a season-ending injury. The Miners also lost another offensive line starter early in the year in center Sam Knesel, who saw his season end in week two.

Parra and Knesel are both back and healthy heading into the year and figure to contend for starting roles, Parra at tackle and Knesel at guard. The other guard spot will have the other returning starter in sophomore Aaron Bubb, who made great strides throughout the season after transferring from Missouri Western.

S&T will have experienced performers in the mix on the interior line with the return of senior Tom Schneider and sophomore Marcellus Corbin, while a group of redshirt freshmen will also look to make an impact this season as well.

Three of them – Aaron Fritts, Joe Mersinger and Matt Caldwell – will compete for time at the tackle positions along with junior college transfer Alex Steinlage, while Drake Randall will contend to earn a spot at guard. Two other redshirt freshmen, Nick Wunderli and Adam Echele, are expected to compete for the starting spot at center.

"I was telling somebody a while back that I couldn't tell you who our five starters on the offensive line are right now," Fenwick said. "It's not because they're not good enough, it's because there are some young guys who are going to compete with some of the ones that were starters or who were injured for those spots. We have a good nucleus of offensive linemen with good size and athleticism."

Defensive Line

With a great deal of depth at the position, Missouri S&T has a good feeling that its defensive line can remain as one of the better units in the Great Lakes Valley Conference in the upcoming 2014 season.

That was the same feeling the Miner coaching staff had prior to last year, but some early injuries cut into the depth the Miners had developed and the line struggled at times in the first couple of weeks of the season. But over the last nine games, the Miners didn't allow an opponent to accumulate more than 340 yards in any contest.

Much of that was attributed to the work of the defensive line, as the S&T defense racked up 34 sacks and averaged more than 10 tackles for a loss per game during the year.

"With the injuries we had last year, we had some young guys and backups that took a lot of reps and they proved that they could play at this level," Miner head coach Tyler Fenwick said. "We feel as if we have a plethora of depth and talent along the defensive line, which will allow us to rotate players and keep fresher ones on the field."

Dale Davey is one of several defensive linemen the Miners can employ along the front four -- a unit that finished second in NCAA Division II with 45 quarterback sacks in 2012.

This year's line is led by a pair of senior defensive ends, Dan Mauszycki and Freddy Dugard. Mauszycki led the Miners with six sacks last fall and with 13 tackles for a loss from the perimeter, while Dugard – one of the players that was hit by the injury bug in the early stages of the year – racked up 11 sacks as a junior in 2012 when the Miners got to the quarterback 45 times.

In Dugard's absence last season, Daleroy Davey came in and registered four sacks and seven stops behind the line. He will compete for a starting role as will Andrew Masters, who had a couple of sacks of his own as a redshirt freshman and Dorian Yearby, who picked up one sack among his 11 tackles in his freshman season.

On the inside, the Miners bring back starter Geoff Correnti and Jacob Nutt, who combined for 11 tackles behind the line of scrimmage at the tackle spots in 2013. Josip Juric, a junior and solid run stopper that suffered a season-ending injury during the preseason last fall, returns to the mix as well; he had 37 tackles in a starting role in the 2012 campaign.

Steve Martin, A.J. Warren and Harold Edwards, all of whom gained valuable experience a year ago, will among those competing for roles on the defensive line along with redshirt freshman Andrew Trautman.

"I think that is the difference when you look at defenses – what is the depth on the line and can you keep that group fresh," Fenwick said. "If you wear down a defensive line, it takes a toll on a drive and offenses can take advantage of that. We feel like have good enough players that we can rotate them in and stay fresh.

"There's going to be some competition for playing time, but competition is a good thing," Fenwick added.

Linebackers

For the last four seasons, Missouri S&T has been sturdy at the linebacker position with the presence of Chris Emesih and Chris Horn, who manned two of the three spots for the better part of that time.

But now that Emesih – last year's Great Lakes Valley Conference "Defensive Player of the Year" – and Horn have graduated, the task of maintaining the high level of play will have to fall on a group of returners that in some cases, have already started to make their mark on the program.

The returning group is led by senior Zach Melber, who started at one of the outside linebacker spots in all 11 games last fall. Melber made 55 tackles, the most of any returning player on the S&T roster and had 11 of them for lost yardage a year ago, while also recording an interception and a fumble return for a touchdown. S&T also returns senior Jon Vance, who made 22 stops last season and one who also figures to contend for a significant role in this unit at outside linebacker.

"Zach had a great year last season," Miner head coach Tyler Fenwick said. "He was all over the place and made a lot of big plays. He was actually a nice surprise for us with the kind of year he had and we're excited about having him back. Jon is another player who loves the game of football and just has a nose for finding the ball; he's able to get in there and make plays."

As for the spots vacated by Emesih and Horn, the leading candidates to fill those roles are senior Nick Kruse and sophomore Rob Cidlik. Kruse, who has also played in the secondary during his Miner career, made34 tackles a season ago while Cidlik was in on 17 tackles.

"Emesih's loss is a big hit for us, but we have some guys who I feel can fill that spot well," Fenwick said. "Rob got a lot of reps last year and he loves to get physical out there. At the moment, he's the lead guy to take that position. When a position is open like that and you have an opportunity to be that next guy, it's very exciting for someone like Rob and other guys we're looking at for the position."

A number of redshirt freshmen are also expected to compete for playing time, including Blake Nivelt, Austin Truvillion, Bret Curtis and Seth Kreher.

Secondary

Missouri S&T finished the 2013 season with one of the top defenses in NCAA Division II, finishing 13th in total defense. Much of that performance was attributed to the play of the secondary, as the Miners ranked second nationally in pass efficiency defense for the year as opponents completed just barely over 50 percent of their pass attempts and averaged just 179.5 yards through the air per week.

Despite the loss of two starters to this unit, including first-team All-Great Lakes Valley Conference performer Mark Hopkins, the Miners appear to still have a pretty solid unit heading into the 2014 campaign.

"We want to find guys who can cover because of what we do defensively," said S&T head coach Tyler Fenwick. "The nice thing about our defense is that regardless of who we bring in, they can play corner or safety as a lot of things we do carry over to both positions. We feel like we have the depth, but we have to get each of them into the right spots."

Will Brown earned first-team All-GLVC honors after leading the league in pass breakups in 2013.

While S&T lost one first-team All-GLVC performer in Hopkins, it also returns one in senior Will Brown, who led the conference with 22 pass breakups last fall. Brown figures to fill one of the cornerback slots, while senior Darrell Walker and junior Khalan King will be in the rotation on the outside as well.

"We're expecting big things out of Will," Fenwick said. "He studies the game and the opponents and understands where he's supposed to be. We're excited to have him back. Darrell gained a lot of experience at the position last season rotating with Sean Martin (the other graduated starter) and Khalan had a really good spring and has developed even more."

At the safety position, the Miners bring back senior Chris McKay, who was in on 47 tackles a season ago, as well as fellow senior Dawan Ferguson, who made 27 tackles last season. Junior Albert Yemitan missed last season, but was a key contributor in the secondary in 2012 and sophomore Jake Harlan also figures to gain a larger role in the upcoming year.

"Chris has all kinds of experience at the other safety spot as a starter," Fenwick added. "He's a big, physical player that knows the defense – he's kind of like a coach on the field for us right now.

"Dawan played quite a bit last year and gained a lot of experience; he had very good spring for us," Fenwick said. "Jake has really become much better mentally as far as knowing where to be and how to play the ball and he's not afraid to stick his nose in there."

Redshirt freshmen Will Rogers and Nate Brown are also expected to compete for spots at safety.

Kickers

The competition for spots in Missouri S&T's kicking game will be something to watch as pre-season drills get underway for the 2014 season.

Adam Peden's graduation has left an opening for the placekicker role, while the Miners will have an incumbent to handle the punting duties.

Peden connected on all but one of his extra point attempts throughout his career and made 11-of-17 on field goal tries a year ago, leaving a big hole to fill. Among the top candidates to take over the spot are a pair of incoming freshmen, Nolan Mannino and Michael Tschin.

"Lucas is an accurate kicker who did some good things in spring ball," said head coach Tyler Fenwick. "Nolan has a very strong leg and can also punt, so we're anxious to see what he can do," Fenwick said. "Michael is another kicker with good distance and accuracy that is coming in. We're going to have some competition and we'll have to get them a bunch of reps to see who the best one is."

The Miner punter from last season – Austin Dussold – averaged 37.1 yards per punt during his freshman season in 2013 and dropped 14 punts inside the opponents' 20-yard line.

"Austin kicked the ball very well in the spring," Fenwick said. "He is a technician who works hard at punting and he gained a ton of experience as a true freshman last year. His numbers were pretty good during that first season."

Miners drop heartbreaker in 2OTs to Eagles

ROLLA, Mo. – A thrilling season opener ended in heart-breaking fashion for Missouri S&T, as 20th-ranked Chadron State got a game-ending 79-yard interception return for a touchdown from Lane Haller in the second overtime period to hand the Miners a 40-34 defeat at Allgood-Bailey Stadium.

The back-and-forth affair saw the two teams post just over 1,000 yards of total offense, with the Miners rallying three times from deficits during the course of the night as three players making their first starts in S&T uniforms had huge nights on the offensive side of the ball.

After Chadron State got on the scoreboard first, S&T tied the score in the final minute of the opening quarter when Reed Brown fired a 26-yard touchdown pass to Melvin Stovall and took the lead right before the end of the half when Adam Peden connected on a 37-yard field goal.

The Miners extended that lead with just under six minutes remaining in the third quarter with their second scoring drive that covered at least 80 yards, which ended with Brown's 40-yard touchdown pass to Ben Matthews. But an unsportsmanlike conduct on S&T after the touchdown pushed the kickoff back to the 20-yard line – propelling the Eagles on a spurt that allow them to regain the lead.

Peden's 40-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter knotted the score at 20, then the Miners grabbed the lead on a two-yard scoring run from Zenel Hudson with 2:57 to play.

Chadron State tied the game on Jonn McLain's 12-yard scoring pass to Cody Roes to wiith 44 seconds remaining. The teams traded touchdowns in the first overtime period before Haller's interception return that won the game for the Eagles.

Reed Brown accumulated 414 yards of total offense in the Miners' season opener against Chadron State.

Griffons hand Miners second straight setback

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. – Missouri S&T struggled to get its offense going on this night, while Missouri Western capitalized on some errors by the Miners along the way to build a big early advantage to down the Miners 63-3.

The Griffons, ranked sixth in both the AFCA and D2Football.com rankings, turned an S&T interception, fumble and blocked punt in the opening half into 21 points as they built a 35-3 lead by halftime. Western also did a lot of damage to the Miners with their ground game, with 331 of its 462 total yards coming via its running game.

S&T had a good opportunity early in the contest, holding the Griffons to a three-and-out on their opening possession and getting the ball at midfield after a punt. However, the MIners went three-and-out themselves and then after Western missed a field goal on its next trip, an interception by Marc Harrison gave the Griffons the ball at the S&T 38-yard line.

Two plays later, quarterback Travis Partridge kept the ball on a fake and took it in from 11 yards out to give Western the lead. Later in the quarter, Raphael Spencer closed a four-play drive with a 30-yard touchdown run, then added a 41-yard scoring run immediately after a fumbled punt gave the ball to the Griffons in Miner territory.

The Miners got on the scoreboard following that score when Adam Peden (Bloomington, III./Bloomington) kicked a 33-yard field goal, but Western got back to the end zone in the final minute of the half on a six-yard touchdown pass from Partridge to Daylon Harper.

The Miners (0-2) finished the night with 213 yards of total offense, as Reed Brown completed 15-of-26 passes for 130 yards. Josh Corbid had a game-high five receptions for S&T for 47 yards, while Nick Taylor caught four passes for 49 yards.

Adam Peden's 33-yard field goal accounted for S&T's only points in the contest at Missouri Western.

Hudson, defense lead S&T to its first win

ROLLA, Mo. – After struggling to get its offense on track during the first half, Missouri S&T rode the play of its defense and sophomore running back Zenel Hudson to pick up its first win of the 2013 season by topping Wisconsin-LaCrosse 27-14 at Allgood-Bailey Stadium.

Despite outgaining the Eagles 206-124 in the first half, the Miners found themselves down 14-3 as the result of a blocked punt that led to the first UW-LaCrosse touchdown and an interception returned for a score. But at the start of the second half, the Miner defense rose up by securing the team's first two turnovers of the season to spark the offense.

Chris Horn intercepted a pass on a third-and-11 play and returned it into UWL territory, starting a four-play drive that drew S&T to within four. The touchdown came after quarterback Reed Brown had bobbled the snap, then rolled out to his right and hit Josh Corbid in the front corner of the end zone for a 26-yard scoring pass.

Two plays after the ensuing kickoff, Sean Martin picked off an Andy Sires pass and was brought down at the Eagles' 40-yard line. On third down, Brown connected with Ben Matthews for 12 yards and a first down, then S&T stayed on the ground for the duration of the 10-play drive that culminated in a two-yard touchdown run by Hudson that put the Miners ahead 17-14.

Up 20-14 with 3:45 to play, S&T started at its own seven and on third-and-one, Hudson ran an off-tackle play and after getting past the initial line of defense, raced 84 yards down the sideline for a game-clinching touchdown.

The scoring run tied the fifth-longest in school history, while also putting him over the 200-yard mark in the contest. Hudson would finish with 222 yards on 35 carries, the second-most rushing yards in a game in the 120-year history of the program.

Zenel Hudson rushed for 222 yards, the second-most in a game in S&T history, as the Miners knocked off Wisconsin-LaCrosse for its first win of the season.

Turnovers undo Miners in loss at Lindenwood

ST. CHARLES, Mo. – A slow start put Missouri S&T's football team into a hole it wasn't able to escape from, as the Miners dropped a 27-10 decision to Lindenwood.

Six turnovers – four of them in the first half -- helped put the Miners into a 17-point deficit in the early stages of the game and held them back in their efforts to get back into the contest.

The Lions scored on the opening possession of the game on James Neal's 22-yard field goal, then forced the first of the four first half turnovers when Pierre Desir intercepted a Reed Brown pass deep in Lion territory. Five plays after the interception, Dillon Miller connected with Jaron Alexander for a 36-yard touchdown pass.

Later in the quarter, D'Andre Green picked off a Brown pass and returned it 15 yards for a score to push the Lions' lead to 17-0.

Despite the four turnovers, the S&T defense held firm in keeping Lindenwood off the scoreboard for the balance of the first half and the Miners got their first scoring drive completed right before it ended.

Beginning at their own 30, the Miners used five first downs to drive down the field and after Leon Moody caught a pass from Brown to reach the Lions' one-yard line, Brown took it in himself to get S&T on the scoreboard with 14 seconds remaining in the half.

The Miners put together another impressive drive late in the third quarter, this one starting from their own 20, to cut into the Lion lead again in the third quarter. S&T drove to the Lindenwood 16 and got three points out of the 64-yard drive on a 33-yard field goal by Adam Peden in the final minute of the quarter.

However, Lindenwood was able to extend its lead on Marvin Byrd's three-yard scoring run at the 8:34 mark of the fourth quarter.

Dan Mauszycki had one of the Miners' two quarterback sacks in the game at Lindenwood.

Miners fall at UIndy after weather delay

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. – Two turnovers that came after a weather delay led to a pair of Indianapolis touchdowns before the first half ended, pushing the 21st-ranked Greyhounds into the lead and to an eventual 34-3 victory in the Great Lakes Valley Conference opener for both teams.

The tough defensive battle in the early stages of the contest was tied at three apiece when play was stopped with 6:22 left in the opening half. When the contest resumed after a stoppage that lasted 33 minutes, Ulndy linebacker Derrick Bryant intercepted Reed Brown's pass on the first play to give Ulndy the ball at the S&T 48-yard line.

Eight plays later, Klay Fiechter scored on a nine-yard run to put the Greyhounds in front.

The Miners' next possession also ended with an turnover, as Andre Smith picked off a Brown pass and brought it back to the Miner 25. After a pass interference call moved the ball to the 10, quarterback Chris Mills ran it into the end zone on the next play to make it 17-3.

S&T scored on the game's opening possession on a drive that lasted nearly six minutes. Much of the work on the drive was done by Zenel Hudson, who had 20 yards on the ground and caught a 17-yard pass from Brown to reach the Ulndy two-yard line. However, the Miners had to settle for a 24-yard field goal from Adam Peden to take the early lead.

The Miner defense held the Greyhounds in check for much of the first half, as Ulndy had minus seven yards in total offense until the Greyhounds put together their first scoring drive in the early stages of the second quarter that ended with a 20-yard field goal by Scott Miller.

The Miners held a 297-270 advantage in yardage in the game that was played in the rain throughout the evening.

Anthony Moore finished with 53 yards on the ground for the Miners, who ran for 205 at Indianapolis.

Big day on ground leads Miners to victory at KWC

OWENSBORO, Ky. – After getting off to a slow start Saturday afternoon, Missouri S&T picked up the pace in the second quarter and its first Great Lakes Valley Conference win in the process, downing Kentucky Wesleyan 41-21 at Steele Stadium.

S&T trailed 14-7 late in the first quarter after Will Barnes scored on a one-yard quarterback sneak on fourth down. But after the Barnes touchdown, the Miner defense settled in and S&T was able to outscore the Panthers 34-7 to up its record to 2-4 and even its GLVC mark at 1-1 in the final game of a three-game road stretch.

The Miners got a huge day from their ground game – even with leading rusher Zenel Hudson sidelined due to an injury -- finishing with 271 yards rushing as part of a 551-yard day offensively. Chris Kennard ran for a career-high 120 yards on 16 carries, while DeSoto Dickson had 73 and Anthony Moore added 39 and two scores.

Following the Barnes touchdown, the Miners put together a drive that reached the KWC two-yard line, but an illegal block penalty and a sack moved the ball back to the 20, where they had to then settle for a 37-yard field goal from Adam Peden.

S&T trailed 14-10 when it went to its ground game to take the lead for good. Beginning with an 11-yard carry by Dickson, the Miners ran the ball on all seven plays of the go-ahead drive and had a carry of at least 10 yards on the possession from three different running backs. Kennard finished the drive with a two-yard scoring run a little over four minutes into the second quarter to put the Miners in front 17-14.

The Miners would score again on their next possession, which followed an interception by Khalan King, when Moore ended a 54-yard drive with a five-yard run, then pushed their lead to 17 the first time they touched the ball in the second half. Reed Brown connected with Leon Moody for a 57-yard pass play on the first snap and Kennard scored his second touchdown of the day on a three-yard run.

Khalan King had one of the two interceptions recorded by S&T in its victory at Kentucky Wesleyan.

S&T rallies for key GLVC win over Pumas

ROLLA, Mo. – Saint Joseph's put the first big play on the scoreboard on Homecoming at Allgood-Bailey Stadium, but it was Missouri S&T who made the big plays in the fourth quarter as it rallied for a 14-13 GLVC victory.

The Miners overcame a 13-point halftime deficit after reserve quarterback Peter Simpson threw a 38-yard touchdown pass to Nick Taylor with 8:22 remaining, then the S&T defense picked off four Puma passes in the final 6:37 of play to secure the win – the first back-to-back victories for the Miners this season.

Things didn't start out so well for S&T as on the first play after the opening kickoff, Kobi Cook took a handoff, went around the left side of the line and got loose in the secondary, racing down the sideline for a 62-yard touchdown run to give the Pumas an immediate 6-0 lead. However, Gavin Voss missed the extra point – a miss that would prove costly before the afternoon ended.

Saint Joseph's extended its lead with a 10-play, 72-yard drive after the missed field goal attempt, a drove that concluded with a threeyard touchdown run by GLVC rushing leader Braxton Shelton.

On the Pumas' first possession of the second half, Dan Mauszycki recovered a Shelton fumble at the Saint Joseph's 39-yard line. From there, the Miners drove to the three-yard line and Chris Kennard crashed over the goal line from there to trim the Puma lead to 13-7.

The teams would trade punts on the next three possessions, then the Miners embarked on their game-winning drive after the second Puma punt of the sequence.

In the fourth quarter, following a 22-yard pass to Melvin Stovall to get into Saint Joseph's territory, Simpson hit Taylor down the sideline for the go-ahead touchdown pass with 8:22 remaining. Taylor was flagged for an excessive celebration penalty following the score, but the Pumas elected to take the penalty on the kickoff – and Peden hit the extra point to put the Miners in front.

After taking the lead, the Miner defense would intercept four passes down the stretch to secure the win. Will Brown made the first after the Pumas reached the S&T 17-yard line, then the Miners got picks from Chris McKay, Sean Martin and Mark Hopkins to wrap up the win.

Nick Taylor's fourth quarter touchdown reception gave the Miners a 14-13 victory over Saint Joseph's.

Miners struggle in second half, fall at Truman

KIRKSVILLE, Mo. - Missouri S&T held a halftime lead over Truman State by keeping it out of the end zone, but a sloppy second half – punctuated by four Miner turnovers -- pushed the Bulldogs to a 27-7 GLVC win at Stokes Stadium.

The Miners held the Bulldogs to just 121 yards of offense in a turnover-free first half on their own part and took a 7-6 lead to the locker room at the intermission. However, a fumble on the first play of the second half turned into a play that seemed to set the tone for the rest of the contest.

Although the first fumble didn't come back to bite the Miners - the Bulldogs would return the favor with a fumble back to S&T four plays later – the field position battle that came with it eventually led to the Bulldogs' go-ahead score later in the period.

Buoyed by a pair of three-and-outs by the defense to start the game, the Miners put together an impressive scoring drive to get on the scoreboard first in the opening quarter.

Starting from their own 17-yard line, the Miners picked up six first downs on their way down the field – including a pair of third down conversions on passes from redshirt freshman quarterback Peter Simpson, who was making his first collegiate start Saturday. Simpson hit Nick Taylor for a 12-yard completion as Taylor made a one-handed catch near the sideline in the early stages of the drive to keep it going.

The Miners stayed on the ground for the final eight plays of the drive that ended with Zenel Hudson's one-yard touchdown

S&T finished the afternoon with 222 yards of total offense to Truman's 306. Simpson completed 12-of-32 passes for 130 yards, four of them to Ben Matthews for 48 yards. Hudson, who was back in the lineup after missing the last two games with an injury, led the rushers with 34 yards.

The Miner defense held Truman State to 306 total yards and just 111 through the air.

Miners bounce back to take down Cardinals

LIBERTY, Mo. – After spotting William Jewell an early lead, Missouri S&T's defense took control of matters by holding the Cardinals off the scoreboard for the balance of the afternoon, helping lead the Miners to a 24-6 GLVC victory at Greene Stadium.

The Cardinals got on the scoreboard first after Nick Messer returned an interception to the Miners' one-yard line, setting up a touchdown run by Glen Whitney 3:47 into the contest. But from that point forward, William Jewell managed only two drives that got past midfield for the rest of the afternoon as it finished with just 202 yards of total offense and 12 first downs.

S&T had two early turnovers and a missed field goal in the opening quarter, but with the wind at its back to begin the second period, put together a 53-yard scoring drive to take the lead for good.

After quarterback Peter Simpson completed a third down pass to Leon Moody for a first down, he connected with Melvin Stovall for 34 yards to the Cardinals' five-yard line. On the next play, Zenel Hudson went into the end zone untouched and the Miners went in front with Adam Peden's extra point.

The Miners extended their lead before the half ended on a fourth down play, as they elected to go for it on fourth-and-four from the WJC 35-yard line. After calling a timeout with 1:13 to go, Stovall ran past cornerback Quinlin Riser and hauled in a Simpson pass just inside the goal line to give the Miners a 14-6 lead that they would take to the break.

S&T would then score on its opening possession of the second half as on a fourth down play, Simpson connected with fullback Rob Cidlik for a two-yard scoring catch, the first reception in the career of the redshirt freshman.

Melvin Stovall had a touchdown reception among his five catches for 113 yards as the Miners picked up a victory at William Jewell.

S&T breaks loose in second half to down 'Cats

ROLLA, Mo. – In a game of momentum swings, a critical one early in the second half proved to be decisive for Missouri S&T as it reached the .500 mark for the first time by knocking off McKendree 31-21 in a GLVC contest at Allgood-Bailey Stadium.

Leading 10-7 as the second half began, McKendree's Branden Walker returned the kickoff 87 yards to the Miners' seven-yard line. But the Miner defense got a stand, stopping quarterback Isaac Fisher short of the goal line on fourth down to give the ball to S&T.

From there, the Miners embarked on a 99-yard scoring drive – which concluded with Peter Simpson's 26-yard scoring pass to Melvin Stovall to start a 21-0 run by the Miners to start the second half and give them an insurmountable 31-7 lead.

The Bearcats struck first in the contest, as Issac Fisher connected with Zac Dixon for a 23-yard touchdown pass to put McKendree in front. S&T answered right back with a 10-yard scoring toss from Simpson to tight end Jake Giljum, then took the lead in the final minute of the first half when Zach Melber picked off a Fisher pass leading to a 21-yard field goal by Adam Peden that gave S&T its 10-7 halftime lead.

When the Miners got the ball after the goal line stand, they used the running game to get out of the shadows of their own goal posts with runs on four of the first five plays. Simpson then completed three straight passes – two to Stovall and one to Leon Moody – to cover the final 73 yards of the drive to reach the end zone.

Following the Stovall touchdown reception, the Miner defense made another big play as Nick Kruse forced a fumble on a sack of Fisher and Melber returned the loose ball 43 yards for a touchdown to extend the lead to 24-7. The Miners added to the lead on their next possession that concluded with a Simpson touchdown run from the five Missouri S&T knocked off McKendree as Peter Simpson completed 20-of-30 passes for 235 yards and two touchdowns.

Miners top Hawks to close 2013 above .500

ROLLA, Mo. – Missouri S&T's defense put in another stellar performance, helping finish off a winning season for the Miners as S&T took down Quincy 20-3 in the season finale at Allgood-Bailey Stadium.

The victory allowed the Miners to end the year with a 6-5 overall record – the first time they moved over the .500 mark this season – and a 5-2 mark in Great Lakes Valley Conference play which earned them a tie for second place with Saint Joseph's and Truman State.

S&T held the Hawks to 202 yards of total offense and forced three turnovers in the game. Quincy's only score – a third quarter field goal -- came on a drive that started at the S&T 17-yard line after a short punt into a gusty wind.

The Miners and Hawks were caught up in a scoreless tie until the Miners broke through late in the first half with a pair of scoring drives.

First, the Miners took over after a missed Hawk field goal and after taking the ball past midfield, freshman DeSoto Dickson broke through the line and raced 41 yards for the first touchdown of the contest with 2:17 to go in the half.

S&T's defense forced a punt on the next Quincy possession to give the offense 1:11 to work with and the Miners used nearly every second of that to extend the lead before the half ended.

Starting from their own 20, S&T quarterback Peter Simpson completed four straight passes -- three of them to Leon Moody - to reach the Hawks' 24-yard line with 15 seconds to go in the half, then completed a fifth straight pass to Melvin Stovall along the sideline. Stovall cut inside of the Quincy defense and just got into the end zone with four seconds to go to give the Miners a 14-0 halftime lead.

Rob Cidlik's one-yard run in the third quarter wound up being the last score in a penalty-filled contest.

DeSoto Dickson's 41-yard touchdown run kicked off the scoring as the Miners closed the year by knocking off Quincy on Senior Day.

GREAT LAKES VALLEY CONFERENCE

Missouri S&T is a member of the Great Lakes Valley Conference, joining the league in the 2005-06 academic year as part of a league expansion that brought three institutions into the league. The GLVC, which is constituted of 16 institutions for the 2014-15 season, made its name as a power in NCAA Division II basketball but has enjoyed success in many sports and now the league can claim itself as one of the nation's top Division II leagues.

The GLVC is one of the largest conferences in NCAA Division II with the 16 members, the most recent addition being Truman State University a year ago. The conference also has Lincoln University and Southwest Baptist University as associate members in football.

The formation of the GLVC can be traced as far back as 1972 when the athletic directors of three member schools - Kentucky Wesleyan, Bellarmine and Indiana State University at Evansville (now the University of Southern Indiana) - began preliminary discussions about forming a basketball conference. Four years later, the University of Indianapolis and Saint Joseph's College expressed interest. On July 7, 1978, those schools - along with Ashland University - united to become the GLVC.

Since formulation of the conference, seven schools have joined the league: Lewis University (1980), Indiana-Purdue at Fort Wayne (1984), Northern Kentucky University (1985), Kentucky State University (1989), Quincy University (1994), Southern Illinois University Edwardsville (1994), University of Wisconsin-Parkside (1994) and UM-St. Louis (1995). Ashland and Kentucky State left the conference after the 1994 season. IPFW left the GLVC following the 2000-01 academic year and SIU Edwardsville left the conference after the 2007-08 season.

The addition of Southern Illinois Edwardsville, Quincy, Wisconsin-Parkside and Missouri-St. Louis in the mid-1990s allowed the GLVC to become an immediate national power in several sports such as men's and women's soccer, women's softball and tennis.

At the start of the 2005-06 season, Missouri S&T, Drury University and Rockhurst University – all of whom have had a good deal of success at the regional and national levels in various sports - have enhanced the league's reputation at the NCAA Division II level. The conference expanded again prior to the 2009-10 season when the University of Illinois-Springfield and Maryville University become members of the GLVC and again last year with the addition of William Jewell College. McKendree replaced Northern Kentucky in the league's lineup in 2012-13 and Truman State, a former rival of S&T in the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Assocaition, took Kentucky Wesleyan's place in the league on July 1, 2013.

The league's staff has also increased along the way, with the GLVC hiring its first full-time commissioner in 1996. In 2001, an associate commissioner was also added to the full-time conference staff and the GLVC's first full-time sports information director was added in the summer of 2006.

The GLVC can claim schools in several of the Midwest major media markets, with schools in Milwaukee/Northern Illinois (Wisconsin-Parkside), Chicago (Lewis), Indianapolis (Indianapolis), Louisville (Bellarmine), Evansville (Southern Indiana), Kansas City (Rockhurst/William Jewell), Springfield, Mo. (Drury) and St. Louis (Missouri-St. Louis/Maryville/ McKendree).

The conference sponsors 17 championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, soccer, swimming, indoor and outdoor track and field, and tennis for men and basketball, cross country, softball, soccer, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field, golf, swimming and volleyball for women.

GLVC teams have also claimed 19 NCAA Division II championships as league members, the most recent being Drury's titles in men's and women's swimming and Southern Indiana's in baseball last year, with national titles also being won in men's and women's basketball, men's soccer and softball in the league's first 35 seasons of competition.

In 2001, the league announced the creation of the GLVC Hall of Fame, with the first class being inducted in 2002. Former S&T softball standout Kandi Wieberg and track & field Olympian Tyrone Smith have been part of the last two induction classes.

Jim Naumovich, a former sports information director and director of athletics at Quincy University, is in his seventh year as the commissioner of the GLVC. Tonya Charland serves as the league's assistant commissioner, while Jeff Smith handles the conference's sports information duties as the conference's associate commissioner. The league offices are located in Indianapolis.

MINER ATHLETIC HALL OF FAME

The top student-athletes in the history of the university athletic program are permanently enshrined in the Miner Athletic Hall of Fame. The Hall of Fame is located on the ground level of the Gale Bullman Multi-Purpose Building.

Heading into the 2014 academic year, a total of 148 individuals and 18 teams have been inducted into the Hall of Fame, a total that includes 82 members that played or coached football at the university as well as seven teams. This year's Miner Athletic Hall of Fame ceremony will take place on Saturday, Oct. 11, when S&T hosts Lindenwood-Belleville.
