FOOTBALL RECORDS -- All-America Selections

Ed Kromka (1941): Kromka was the first Miner to earn All-America honors as he was named to the Little All-America Team. Kromka, who died in 1971, was one of the charter inductees into the Miner Athletic Hall of Fame in 1987.

Frank Winfield (1969): Winfield was named to the Kodak All-America Team at offensive guard after a standout year that saw S&T post its first winning record in years. Winfield was inducted into Miner Athletic Hall of Fame in 1990.

Merle Dillow (1974): Dillow was chosen to the Kodak All-America Team after a 50-catch, 786-yard season. He shares the record with eight touchdown catches in one season. Dillow was inducted into the Miner Athletic Hall of Fame in 2000.

Bill Grantham (1980): Grantham was named to the Kodak All-America Team after helping lead the Miners to a 10-0 record and No. 10 final national ranking in 1980. He holds the MIAA record with 29 career interceptions. Grantham was inducted into the Miner Athletic Hall of Fame in 1997.

Eivind Listerud (1993): Listerud was the most recent selection to an All-America team, as he was chosen to the Kodak All-America Team after a season where he was one of the nation's most accurate placekickers. He also earned second-team GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America honors that season.

FOOTBALL RECORDS -- All-America Selections

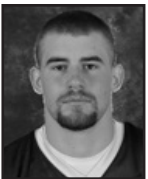

Cole Drussa (2003-04): Drussa was the first Miner player to earn All-America honors in two different seasons, doing so following the 2003 and 2004 campaigns. In 2003, he earned second-team All-America honors from Football Gazette after a year in which he was among the national reception leaders for tight ends. Drussa caught 55 passes for 601 yards on the season with five touchdowns in 2003. The following season, Drussa was a consensus All-America pick after catching 69 passes for 790 yards and seven touchdowns. He was a first-team All-America pick by Daktronics and Football Gazette, second-team by D2Football.com and third team on the Associated Press Little All-America Team. In addition, he was a first-team choice to ESPN The Magazine's Academic All-America Team.

Joe Winters (2006): Winters was named to Football Gazette's All-America squad as an honorable mention pick after breaking the school record for passing yards in a season with 3,724. Winters also threw 35 touchdown passes on the season to earn first-team all-conference honors in the Great Lakes Football Conference.

Ashton Gronewold (2005-06-07): Gronewold completed a standout career in the 2007 season by being selected to the Associated Press Little All-America First Team, Daktronics and Football Gazette second team and D2Football.com third team. In 2007, Gronewold accumulated a school record 2,250 yards and was named a regional finalist for the Harlon Hill Award. As a junior, he was selected to the Associated Press Little All-America second team, Football Gazette's third team and D2Football.com's honorable mention squad after a season where he broke the S&T single-season marks for receiving. His 78 catches for 1,120 yards and 15 touchdowns broke his totals of 75 receptions and 1,080 yards in 2005 that netted honorable mention All-America laurels from Football Gazette. He was named Great Lakes Football Conference's "Offensive Player of the Year" in 2006.

Bryan Crider (2009): Crider earned a spot on the Associated Press Little All-America team following a senior year in which he caught 57 passes for 604 yards and four touchdowns. The 57 catches gave Crider a total of 142 for his career, the most by any tight end in Miner history. During the season, Crider had a 12-catch, 134-yard performance against Saint Francis (Ind.), including a key 24-yard reception in S&T's game-winning drive.

Eddie Rascon (2012): Rascon was named to the Division II squad as an honorable mention pick by Beyond College Sports Network following his junior year, a season in which he tied for 10th nationally in quarterback sacks with 13 and had 14.5 tackles behind the line of scrimmage from his defensive tackle position. He was tied for second on the team with 44 tackles in the Miners' 10-1 campaign.

Chris Emesih (2013): Rascon was named to the Division II squad by Beyond College Sports Network following a season in which he was named as the Great Lakes Valley Conference's "Defensive Player of the Year." Emesih finished the year with 100 tackles, two quarterback sacks and an interception for a defensive unit that was ranked 14th in total defense in NCAA Division II.

Will Brown (2014): Brown earned a spot on the AFCA All-America team after leading the Great Lakes Valley Conference with seven interceptions, including one returned for a touchdown. Brown, a first-team All-GLVC selection, ranked among the top 12 in NCAA Division II for both interceptions and passes defended during the season from his cornerback position.

Deshawn Jones (2017): Jones landed second-team All-America honors from the Associated Press and was also named honorable mention by D2Football.com following a record-breaking season, which included setting new rushing marks for a game (275) and season (1,579) as well as records for touchdowns in a game (five) and a season (16). Jones finished the 2017 season as the fourth-leading rusher in NCAA Division II.

FOOTBALL RECORDS -- All-America Selections

Bo Brooks (2018): Brooks was selected to three All-America teams following the 2018 campaign, as he was named to the second team on the D2CCA squad and honorable mention on the D2Football.com and Don Hansen squads. Brooks set a new school record with 22 tackles for a loss among his 87 tackles for the year, while also recording 11 quarterback sacks and three forced fumbles.

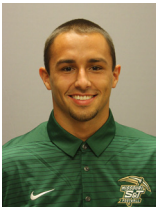

Tershawn Wharton (2018): Following an outstanding 2018 season, Wharton was selected to Don Hansen's squad as an honorable mention pick. Wharton finished the year with 18 tackles for a loss and nine sacks and was named as the most outstanding defensive player at the Mineral Water Bowl. He would finish his S&T career as the all-time leader in sacks and tackles for a loss; Wharton eventually signed with the Kansas City Chiefs of the National Football League and played in Super Bowl LV.

Roderick Chapman (2018): Chapman earned two All-America awards in the 2018 season, landing on Don Hansen's third team and on the D2Football.com squad as an honorable mention pick. Chapman led the Miners and Great Lakes Valley Conference in interceptions with six and had a league-high 23 passes defended from his cornerback position.

Tyler Swart (2018): Swart was selected to Don Hansen's team as an honorable mention pick after completing a record-setting career for the Miners. In the 2018 campaign, one in which he was named as the All-GLVC first-team quarterback, he completed 212-of-331 passes for 2,936 yards and 29 touchdowns. He finished his career with records for passing yards (8,796), completions (628) and touchdown passes (79).

Braxton Graham (2018): Graham, who was also an honorable mention pick on Don Hansen's 2018 squad, led the Miners with 63 receptions for 1,015 yards and 14 touchdowns that season, while also finishing with a team-high 1,369 all-purpose yards. In his four seasons in a Miner uniform, Graham ranked among the all-time leaders with 5,260 all-purpose yards, 206 receptions, 3,213 receiving yards and 32 touchdown receptions; he also scored four additional touchdowns -- two rushing and two on punt returns.

Ben Straatmann (2021): Straatmann was named to the Don Hansen All-America second team following a record-setting 2021 campaign, when he led NCAA Division II with 14 sacks and recorded 24 tackles for a loss, both setting new S&T single season records. Straatmann also had 92 total tackles and forced two fumbles, while also setting single game marks with five sacks and six tackles for a loss against Quincy.

Breon Michel (2021): Michel earned a spot on the Don Hansen All-America squad as an honorable mention selection following the 2021 season, after leading the Miners with 63 receptions for 1,092 yards and scored 14 touchdowns. Michel set the single-game receiving record with 234 yards in catches in a win over Wayne State (Mich.) and had three touchdown receptions in two games during the year.

Cameron Clemons (2021): Clemons was also named to the Don Hansen All-America team as an honorable mention pick after finishing the 2021 campaign with four interceptions and 17 pass breakups that ranked second in NCAA Division II. Clemons had an interception that set up the Miners' game-winning touchdown in a win at McKendree and also returned an interception for a score as part of S&T's rally from a 27-point deficit in a season-ending win at Southwest Baptist.
