Fri., Sept. 19 — Lady Miners vs. Saint Joseph’s, 5 p.m., Rolla, Mo.
Sun., Sept. 21 — Lady Miners vs. Indianapolis, 12 p.m., Rolla, Mo.

The Games
Missouri S&T returns home to pair a Great Lakes Valley Conference matches this weekend. The Lady Miners will take on Saint Joseph’s on Friday evening at 5 pm and will then square-off with Indianapolis on Sunday afternoon at 12 pm.

Last Time Out
It was a rough last week for S&T as it dropped all three of its matches. The Lady Miners started off the week with a match against Lindenwood. It was match they led for a majority of the evening but a late goal by the Lady Lions forced overtime and then they would win it with a goal late in the first OT session.

On Friday, S&T traveled up to 23rd ranked Wisconsin-Parkside and fell 7-0. The Lady Miners allowed five goals in the first half and were unable to recover as the Rangers held them to just three shots in the contest.

On Sunday, S&T jumped on top 1:33 into the match as Kendall Fitzpatrick lofted one over the goalkeeper for her first of the season. Lewis answered back with a goal in the 19th minute and the game remained tied until the 64th minute when the Flyers converted on a free kick from the top of the penalty area. The Lady Miners had two chances to tie right after that goal but Sarah Hostler was denied twice. Lewis added to its lead with a goal in the 83rd minute for insurance. Kendra Wood brought S&T back to within a goal heading home a free kick from Sammy Minea in the 89th minute.

Scouting the Opposition
Saint Joseph’s - The Pumas, like the Lady Miners, are still looking for their first win of the season entering play on Friday. Last weekend Saint Joseph’s opened GLVC play with a 4-2 loss at home to Rockhurst and then on Sunday played William Jewell to a scoreless double overtime draw. Through their first four games the Pumas have been outscored 11-2.

Saint Joseph’s is led in scoring by Calleigh Olson and Megan Gramhofer with a goal each while Kate Hickner and Brittany Santoro each have an assist. Melissa Kuhar has played a majority of the minutes in goal allowing eight goals while making 19 saves. She has posted a goals against average of 2.53 and has one shutout for the year.

Indianapolis — The Greyhounds enter play this weekend with a record of 1-2-1 after opening conference action with a 2-2 tie against William Jewell last Friday and then were defeated 1-0 by Rockhurst on Sunday. UIndy will play at Drury on Friday evening before making the trek to Rolla on Sunday. For the season the ‘Hounds have been outscored 6-5 and outshot 79-56.
